Bear In A Field

I only remember parts of my dream. I am in a field. It is peaceful and green and I can see trees off in the distance. All of the sudden, there is a brown bear and I run. He is close behind me and I hop over a barbed wire fence and run for the trees. Then I am suddenly at some meeting in a shopping mall that has pink stucco walls. Can you help me understand what this dream means?

Thank You,
Carolyn

Hi Carolyn,

Chase dreams are quite common and often reflect a situation that you are afraid in confronting. The bear is symbolic of introspection and self-reflection. In mythology, it also refers to the great mother figure. The green fields indicates your hopes and your unlimited potential for growth. The fence is obviously an obstacle that you overcome and is a reflection of your determination and will. I think the bear is chasing you not to attack you, but to push you away. It is no coincidence that you run toward the trees. The trees are significant for they are a symbol of self-development and individuality. Your mother may be pushing you to explore the world on your own and become your own person. At the end of your dream, you suddenly found yourself in a meeting. The meeting reiterates again how you need to redirect your energies in a more productive manner.

Best Regards,
Steve

Red Eyes

My mother and sister both dream of my late father having red eyes. Can you help me to understand the meaning of their dream?

Thank You,
Daisy

Hi Daisy,

The eyes are the windows to the soul as the popular phrase goes. His red eyes in the dream may be a way to draw attention to his inner love, energy, and vigor. Did he travel a lot? The phrase "red eye" may also be a pun referring to his travels or that he was frequently away from home. A more logical explanation for the red eyes may be a reference to the memory of your father. In photographs we are all too familiar with the red eye effect we sometimes get. Thus his red eyes may indicate some memory of him.

Best Regards,
Steve

Aries - Your April Monthly Forecast: It takes a while for superheroes to get to know their own strength - they've been known to break arms and dislocate elbows all from a friendly shake of the hand. As the latest in a long line of heroes, it's now your turn to learn that sometimes 'less is more'. Your natural inclination is to throw everything - including the kitchen sink - at something you want. But with Mars conjunct Saturn in April, if you can find the strength to control your exuberance, events will evolve organically. Victory will be yours before you know it.

Taurus - Your April Monthly Forecast: You're creating quite an impression. It's highly likely that there are more demands being made on your time and your energy too. That's just one of the side-effects of having your ruler Venus in your sign - where it will reside for most of April. So how does the planet of love endow you with such allure and charisma? It seems to weave its magic by encouraging your generosity and kindness. As you're more altruistic, others can't seem to get enough of your company. The more love you give, the more you'll receive.

Gemini - Your April Monthly Forecast: I don't often get the chance to say 'watch out, they're coming for you, they know where you live'. But I can say that to you! This is not a threat or something you should fear. Your pursuers are those who care about you... they have your best interests at heart. They're your nearest and dearest, your earthly guardian angels. They've noticed that you're struggling and that you need help. No matter what seems scary or difficult to negotiate in April, there will be both physical and ethereal support on hand.

Cancer - Your April Monthly Forecast: Doris Day famously sang, 'Que sera, sera, whatever will be, will be', and as Mars and Saturn converge opposite your sign, there's something seductive about the idea of fate being behind the forces that seem beyond your control. But might this just be a convenient narrative? Does it really empower you to live your life with purpose? With Jupiter and Pluto's alignment, just before the New Moon, stand up and choose the destiny that's right for you. In April you have the power to start a positive revolution!

Leo - Your April Monthly Forecast: They say that time flies when you're having fun. So what happens to it when you're not? As Mars and Saturn converge at the beginning of April, you might feel that you're not making progress... but the truth is that you're simply too involved in a situation to see the bigger picture. Though your journey may be slower than you'd like, it's unstoppable. And as the New Moon conjuncts revolutionary Uranus, just before your ruler changes signs, you will reach a milestone that brings you even closer to your goal.

Virgo - Your April Monthly Forecast: Some people espouse whichever view is most expedient in the moment. They can happily trample over ethical and moral conundrums in their quest for an easy life. People who take implacable moral positions are just as difficult to handle. The ability to walk the middle line is an indefinably valuable (and under-appreciated) skill. As you attempt to tackle a tricky situation in April, the key will lie in finding sympathy and appreciation for another's viewpoint - even if they can't bring themselves to do the same.

Libra - Your April Monthly Forecast: Sometimes life throws so many possibilities our way that it's easy to miss the instinctive truth: that's the organic understanding of what would be otherwise obvious. As Mars and Saturn combine in April, with Mercury retrograde, it's time to trust your abilities and commit to a feeling. While emotionally based decisions may have less supporting documentation than you're used to basing your decisions on, it's more profound. The evidence exists, it's just harder to see. But it will emerge and prove you right.

Scorpio - Your April Monthly Forecast: When you exude confidence that infects everyone in your orbit, the phrase 'as bright as a button' could have been coined for you. With Venus opposite your sign preparing to link to both your modern ruler and Jupiter in Scorpio, this is such a time. First, though, Mars brings clear analysis to enable you to make decisions to power your life forward. This is no flash in the pan: the positivity will stay around long enough for you to find a solution to an extended difficulty. Everything is set for irreversible advances in April.

Sagittarius - Your April Monthly Forecast: Our fantasies don't control us. If we dream about buffalo mozzarella, that doesn't mean we can afford to eat pizza until our arteries clog. Though our financial situation may be compelling, it can't be blamed for the morally ambiguous choices we might make. We need to make compromises, but, if we abandon our principles in pursuit of pleasure, the experience will ring hollow. No matter how stretched you may feel in April, as Pluto and Jupiter link, doing the 'right' thing will ultimately be the most rewarding.

Capricorn - Your April Monthly Forecast: As Mars prepares to conjunct your ruler in your sign, you're feeling under pressure. So I'll get right to the point. As the new month starts, you'll feel a real need to get through a lot in a short time. There's so much to do that you're struggling to see how you can do it all. So here's an idea: grab your lengthy to-do list, take a thick pen, and strike through everything that isn't urgent or necessary. It might feel alarming, but Jupiter's link with Pluto in your sign is giving you the power to take control. You can do this.

Aquarius - Your April Monthly Forecast: You have three choices. You can struggle on, feeling disillusioned. You can convince yourself it's all in your imagination. Or, you can start a revolution. It's safest and easiest to keep trudging on. It's also easy to bury your head in the sand. But to stand up and demand tangible change? Now, that's tricky. You'd need to harness the powerful potential of something like a Mars conjunction with your ruler, or a New Moon conjunct Uranus.... What's that? Both of these are happening in April? Looks like you're in luck!

Pisces - Your April Monthly Forecast: When your ruler and Pluto aligned earlier this year, we talked about your power to make a difference for the greater good. How's that coming along? Have you managed to bring about world peace yet? What about eliminating the corruption in the corridors of power? Though your inner strength is Herculean, your challenges are daunting. But you're on the right path, and this transformational journey will take time. Don't be so focused on what's not yet accomplished that you can't enjoy the progress you're making.
