PE In The Buff

Last night, I had a dream about my Advanced PE class. Everyone in my class was playing naked in the field. Then somebody said some profanity. My gym teacher heard the word and we had to go run laps in the nearby woods. There was a x-country race running too and nobody noticed that we were running naked. Could you please tell me what it means? Thank You,
Sheena

Hi Sheena,

Your dream may be telling you that you are making a big deal out of a minor situation or comment. Everybody else has moved on, but you still remain fixated on some matter. The notion that you are running laps, suggests that you are going in circles and going nowhere. You need to move on and set your mind to something more productive. I hope this helps!

Best Regards,
Steve

Two Snakes

I had a dream about being home and seeing two large snakes enter the dining room area of my home. They were fighting together when one headed in my direction Then I woke up. Please help!

Thank You, Shelli

Hi Shelli,

Snakes have quite a complicated and varied symbolism. It can suggests feelings of deviousness, self-renewal, or?temptation. However, the dining room offers a clue as to the precise meaning of the snakes. The dining room is symbolic of your needs and appetites, including sexual ones. In this regard, the overall theme of your dream relates to an?increase in your sexuality or your ambivalence/struggles with sexual issues.

Best Regards,

Plane Crash

Last night I had a very vivid dream. For some reason, it was Halloween. My kids and I were playing in a park as I watched a Japan airline crashing. It first descended towards me and at the last minute began ascending again before crashing. I was r each grasp....I feel fear and want to move faster, but can't move any faster....I am in awe as I move this fast...And that is it! LOL

Thank You,
Annie

Dear Annie,

It sounds like you found your dream as a lizard to be a very liberating and freeing experience. Many people would be disturbed if they had turned into a lizard, but you on the other hand, seem to take full advantage of your lizard ability in crawling though the grass as fast as you can. Your dream seems to symbolize your sense of adventure, your love of nature and your resourcefulness. Even though you may be a thrill seeker, you still remain well grounded.

Best Regards, Steve

Aries - Your August Monthly Forecast: In the documentary 20,000 Days On Earth about the musician Nick Cave, the parting shot is one of the most beautiful in cinema. Standing on Brighton beach the camera begins with a close up on his face and then pulls farther and farther out until the whole promenade is in view. This month, as Mars enters Sagittarius, you may find your own focus shifting. It's not that it is any less sharp. The lens has just widened and you see more in the frame. Could that make it harder for you to hit your target? Maybe, but it will also allow you to broaden your horizons.

Taurus - Your August Monthly Forecast: You've got taste, you've got style. Although much of this comes naturally, it doesn't always mean it's easy to maintain. Sometimes even the most glamorous amongst us need to pop to the supermarket. Seeing a Hollywood star queuing up with a family-size packet of toilet roll, may not fit the image we like to have, but we all have to do it sometime. As your ruler enters Virgo you may have to take part in some of the nitty gritty stuff. Don't fight it. Learn from it, appreciate it and embrace it as a vital part of even the most luxurious lifestyle.

Gemini - Your August Monthly Forecast: You have such a useful mind. Yes, you can be witty, eccentric and esoteric, but you can also be an invaluable source of wisdom. Whatever you do, don't underestimate your worth to others as a practical source of help and inspiration. Your particular way of looking at things may well be unique but that doesn't mean that no-one else can understand your particular insight. This month especially, your singular brand of philosophy and reasoning is exactly what's required. Be clear, be clever and you will be much appreciated.

Cancer - Your August Monthly Forecast: Sometimes you feel as if you are only dancing on the outside. Though to others it may look as if you are totally in the moment, consumed by the music and in tune with the world, inside there may well be an entirely different process happening. You may be meticulously working out each step, planning graceful escapes from potential stumbles and thinking ahead to the possibilities with the next change of beat. Spend time this month exploring your inner creativity. There will come a moment when you have to lead the dance.

Leo - Your August Monthly Forecast: Your ruler, the Sun, leaves your sign this month but not without sticking around to imbue you with some high octane energy and excitement. As a naturally creative and charismatic individual, you can usually rely on your charm to get you through sticky situations. For much of August it may feel effortless to do this. But be careful this doesn't cause you to coast, or take your hand off the tiller. A big heart and a lovely smile will only get you so far. You'll need to back it up with some substance. The qualities you need are within arm's reach.

Virgo - Your August Monthly Forecast: Your solar return approaches in August, giving you renewed light and purpose. In particular, you may find that this month is a positive time for matters of the heart. You may discover a new way of thinking about a relationship, changing your perception of what's possible. Don't shy away from this. You may be a humble soul but that doesn't mean you have nothing to shout about. Just because something seems like a dream doesn't mean it can't be turned into a reality. If anyone can make the intangible physical, it's you.

Libra - Your August Monthly Forecast: This month may present a challenge to your normal way of looking at things. You like things to feel 'just right'. It's a work-life balance thing. Justice for those who are suffering. The equality of opportunity. As your ruler enters Virgo, you may feel that you need to answer a calling, that the harmony of your world needs a little work to get it back into equilibrium. Put some thought into your approach but don't delay your first step too long. Some very positive and powerful cosmic vibrations will help you with your mission.

Scorpio - Your August Monthly Forecast: You've been going through a tense time recently. It may not, though, have been a bad sort of intensity. In fact it has been empowering. But even the broadest of shoulders sometimes need to loosen up. As your ruler Mars leaves your sign, you might feel as if you are losing the drive you've relied on to power you through. Take this opportunity to explore a new way of thinking. The tension is easing and you'll soon find yourself with a new direction.

Sagittarius - Your August Monthly Forecast: Feeling adventurous? You usually are! But this month a Berlin Wall's worth of barriers are about to come tumbling down. Mars moves into your sign, Saturn turns direct AND your ruler is transited by Venus. Oh boy, oh boy, what a time to be you. Don't think you won't have to swing the hammer though. That Germanic wall didn't crumble through disrepair. It took determination, strength and vision to achieve the breakthrough. And the timing was also right. Draw upon all your talents. Your moment is nigh.

Capricorn - Your August Monthly Forecast: Your ruler turns direct this month, bringing with it the chance to return to your traditional strengths. At times it has felt as if you've been swimming against the tide, forced to compromise in order to make progress. The tide is about to turn and its currents will help to carry you forward. It may not always be plain sailing, but the winds will be in your favor.

Can you see that island on your horizon? It may not have treasure buried on it but you are heading for an opportunity that will bring you wealth and well-being.

Aquarius - Your August Monthly Forecast: With both a Full Moon in your sign and your ruler turning direct, August will be a time for celebrating an achievement. This may, though, come as a surprise, a turn-up for the books. You need to be on the lookout for a sudden flash of inspiration or an unexpected turn around in a situation you had almost given up on. Now that you have some advance warning you can be ready! You'll have plenty of time to buy some champagne and invite your friends. You always knew you had it in you, didn't you?

Pisces - Your August Monthly Forecast: We all like to get what we ordered. But sometimes getting less than we expect is preferable to getting more than we bargained for. If you order a Hawaiian pizza, you don't want to find there's no pineapple. But if the pineapple is joined by banana and kiwis, you might get really upset! Until, you remember that you're on holiday! You've just been served a local speciality! You'll feel, this month, as if you're not getting what you are hoping for. Be patient and you'll be pleasantly surprised. There's a treat in store.
