Two Readers: (T/M) The Text Master, F-1 A lady writing in her diary

F/1- Good morning. My name is _____ and today I am reading the part of a woman who is writing in her diary.

T/M- Good morning. My name is _____ and I will be serving as your Textmaster today.

Our Living Word passage of the day is taken from Isaiah 5, verses 3 and 4...

And now, O inhabitants of Jerusalem, and men of Judah, judge, I pray you, betwixt me and my vineyard. What could have been done more to my vineyard that I have not done in it?

F/1- Dear Diary, I am thinking that I'm not growing spiritually very well. But, I know the reason. Satan is so tough to fight against...

T/M- What more could have been done?

F/1- And, I wasn't really raised by the nicest parents in the world...

T/M- What more could have been done?

F/1- And, there are so many people who have so much more going for them than I do...

T/M- What more could have been done?

F/1- And it's not like the good old days, like for the disciples, where Jesus walked directly with them every day...

T/M- What more could have been done?

F/1- And, the Bible is all that old language and so hard to understand...

T/M- What more could have been done?

F/1- And I can't really think that God expects us to be as good as the people were back in the old days when there wasn't so much temptation around...

T/M- What more could have been done?

Isaiah 5:3-4, page 2

F/1- And I don't really have the best support network around me...

T/M- What more could have been done?

F/1- But, I know that someday I'll get around to getting really serious about growing in God and in the Bible and all. I know I'll do it someday... Especially if God makes it easier for me...

T/M- Judge, I pray you, betwixt me and my vineyard. What could have been done more to my vineyard that I have not done in it?

May God's Word speak to each of us directly, today.
