Artist

Alice Murdoch 1944-2020

Alice is remembered as bold, beautiful, and passionate about life, family, friends, and her art. Originally from the south, Alice moved to New England in the 1960's and settled in Charlotte, Vermont where she painted for 40 years. She studied painting at the University of Vermont, Vermont Studio School, the Art Students League in NYC. Her work has been exhibited in juried and in solo artist shows throughout New England, including: the Copley Society, Boston, Massachusetts, the Robert Hull Fleming Museum, Burlington, Vermont, the Amy Tarrant Gallery, the Flynn Center for Performing Arts, Burlington, Vermont, and Bennington College. Alice's paintings are in and private collections throughout the United States.
