Dialogues in Motion: Unraveling New Dimensions of Geometric Art

Miami, FL – Miami International Fine Arts in collaboration with Art Nouveau Gallery proudly presents "Dialogues in Motion," a captivating exhibition that continues the exploration of geometric forms and their dynamic interplay in contemporary art. Curated by Elizabeth Hazim Castillo, the exhibition features the innovative works of six distinguished artists: Uaio Antor, Fran Camino, Adriana Dorta, Miguel Grillo, Delsy Rubio, and Carlos Zerpabzueta. This show, running from May 4th to May 29th, 2024, is a continuation of a project initiated in 2020, showcasing the dedication and creative efforts of these artists who engage in a visual dialogue through geometry and motion in the context of modern art times.

"Dialogues in Motion" provides a platform for these artists to converse through the abstract language of forms, lines, and colors, reflecting their individual perceptions and the collective zeitgeist. Art Nouveau Gallery, known for its strong commitment to promoting Latin American geometric abstraction since its inception in 1987 by Elizabeth Hazim de Castillo.
