EXALTED RULER'S MESSAGE

As my year as ER winds down I want to thank all of you for your support this year. We've seen great turnouts for events, lots of volunteers for work and charities and I'd like to think a good aura of support and happiness throughout the lodge. Do we still have challenges? Of course we do but I know that the upcoming crew of officers can handle anything headed their way if you support them as you have me and my team. I hope you'll join us for membership appreciation dinner so we can show you how much you mean to us. Thank you, Northglenn Elks, for the opportunity to work with you to make our lodge the best it can be!

Sincerely, Troy Young | Exalted Ruler

Elk of the Month

The Elk of the Month reminds me of a rock star since everytime I see him at the Lodge his entourage is at his side. He has been a champion at recruiting new members into our Lodge and has also been known to solicit a large amount of food during our annual food drives for the Christmas Basket program. Speaking of the Christmas Basket program, he and his wife, Michelle, have stepped up to head our Christmas basket program. Please join me in congratulating Phil Jaramillo for being our March Elk of the month and in thanking him for all that he does for our Lodge.

Sincerely,
Arlan Sauer | Leading Knight

Volunteer Of the Month

The Volunteer of the Month for March is someone that has been doing things for our Lodge for a very long time. Most recently she has been active putting together the boutonnieres and corsages for our events. She has put together the arrangement for the Memorial Service and other special occasions when we need her specialty. Please join me in congratulating Cheryl Lemaster and next time you see those beautiful flowers arrangements, you will know who has behind it all.

Sincerely,
Kim Gremling | Loyal Knight

Calendar Meeting / Budget Requests

As we near the end of our Lodge Calendar Year, it is time to plan for the upcoming activities. While some items have already been placed on the schedule, it is important that we ensure they are funded for the coming year.

Along with funding our events, we must make allocations for our restricted funds. They are earmarked for each committee to use as outlined by their committee. If any funds are to be used for other charities, they must be included in the budget and voted on when the budget is submitted to the floor for approval.

If you will be planning an event or need a budget for any activity, now is the time to submit your information.

Please contact Arlan Sauer with Questions or for more information.

Calendar Meeting: March 4, 2023 @ 3:00 pm

Budget Request due: March 16, 2023

Did you Know...

All events that happen at the Lodge are put together by Volunteer Members. The Boy Scouts help with a lot of the events. They serve, do dishes, help prep and many events would not happen without their help. Our Volunteers give up their time and some their own money to help the Lodge. So next time you are at the Lodge and getting served remember to thank them. If there is something you notice that is Not going the way you think it should, offer to help and give them a hand. None of our Volunteers do this for a living and mistakes can be made, we ask that you give them a break and grace.

Gollum's Cave

Oh Hello my preciousness!

Hooray hooray we have TWO winners for my last time writings to you. Mr. Mark Bolson and Mr. Jim Vitale BOTH managed to solve my most tricky riddle. Since this is my last time I will shows you the answers precious.

WHAT HAS FOUR LETTERS (W-H-A-T=4), OCCASIONALLY HAS TWELVE LETTERS (O-C-C-A-S-I-O-N-A-L-L-Y=12), ALWAYS HAS SIX LETTERS (A-L-W-A-Y-S=6), BUT NEVER HAS FIVE LETTERS (N-E-V-E-R=5)

It has been most fun trying to trick you my precious but the man says I can crawl back to my cave and rest til the next party now!!

Good bye for now!!

Off On Another Adventure

The National Anthem, The Star-Spangled Banner

Oh, say, can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, thro' the perilous fight'
O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming.

And the rockets red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there.

Oh, say, does that star-spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

On the shore dimly seen, thro' the mists of the deep,
Where the foe's haughty host in dread silence reposes,
What is that which the breeze, o'er the towering steep,
As it fitfully blows, half conceals, half discloses?
Now it catches the gleam of the morning's first beam,
In full glory reflected, now shines on the stream;
'Tis the star-spangled banner: oh, long may it wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.

And where is that band who so vauntingly swore
That the havoc of war and the battle's confusion
A home and a country should leave us no more?
Their blood has wash'd out their foul footsteps' pollution.

No refuge could save the hireling and slave
From the terror of flight or the gloom of the grave,
And the star-spangled banner in triumph doth wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.

Oh, thus be it ever when free men shall stand,
Between their loved homes and the war's desolation;
Blest with vict'ry and peace, may the heav'n-rescued land
Praise the Power that has made and preserved us as a nation.

Then conquer we must, when our cause is just,
And this be our motto: "In God is our trust";
And the star-spangled banner in triumph shall wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.

Tune: Anacreon in Heaven; Written by Francis Scott Key on September 14th, 1814.
