OUTSIDER, INSIDER, OUTSIDER: Theodore Roosevelt and Republican Conventions

Stan Haynes

Mr. Haynes' book will be available for purchase and signing after the lecture.

A LECTURE BY STAN HAYNES • MAY 2, 2024 AT 7PM

Christ Church Parish Hall • 61 East Main Street, Oyster Bay, NY 11771

Join us for an informative discussion of the intrigue, hoopla, and drama of the nominating conventions of the Republican Party that Theodore Roosevelt dominated, and of those that dominated him.

Stan Haynes is the author of three books on the history of presidential nominating conventions. His latest book, Roosevelt to Roosevelt, covers the Theodore Roosevelt era. The New Yorker has called him "the most exhaustive chronicler of the conventions." He has spoken at presidential sites and has been interviewed about his books by several major media outlets.

This is a free event. Light refreshments will be served.

Special Guest: Theodore Roosevelt reenactor Bill Sommer
