Bus Tour – Fort McHenry Flag Raising & Maryland Fleet Week & Flyover, Baltimore, Maryland Saturday, June 15, 2024

Bus departs Willow Street at 7:15, Lancaster at 7:50, and York at 8:40 (approximately)

Maryland Fleet Week & Flyover Baltimore is a week-long celebration that brings together “Fleets, Flights, and Festivals”, with an exciting line-up of ship tours, festivals, flyovers, and educational activities.

This event honors the dedication of service members who defend our freedoms at sea and in the air, both past and present. It offers a chance for the public to board contemporary naval ships to see sailors work up close and explore historical vessels. Attendees will be treated to a dynamic line-up that includes ship tours, flyovers, community festivals, and educational activities.

Flag raising at Fort McHenry

Fort McHenry is the first site to receive a presidential proclamation requiring that the site fly a flag 24/7, 365 days a year. Join Park staff in the mornings or evenings as we change out our flags for the day and learn about the flag's significance to the park's history. Flag change programs occur daily. In the mornings the park raises a larger replica of a historic flag and in the evenings an overnight all-weather flag is raised over the fort.

SHIPS: Will be open for public tours from 10 am-5 PM. Ship names and locations will be posted 30 DAYS prior to the event. NOTE: INDIVIDUAL SHIPS MAY ADJUST HOURS FOR SPECIAL EVENTS.

FLYOVERS: There will be an exciting series of flyovers of modern and historic military and civilian aircraft, on Saturday and Sunday, June 15-16, centered over Baltimore's iconic Inner Harbor. Eventgoers can enjoy seeing and hearing the roar of jets overhead while strolling around the festival or taking tours of the visiting ships.

FESTIVALS: There will be three festival activations during Maryland Fleet Week featuring live musical performances, exhibitors, food and drink, hands-on children's activities, military displays, and more.

Tour includes: Roundtrip Deluxe Motorcoach Transportation, Boxed Lunch, Admission to Fort McHenry including Raising of the Flag and Self-Guided Tour, Free time at Baltimore Inner Harbor for Fleets, Flights and Festivals, Water & Snacks on the motorcoach, Knowledgeable and Experienced Tour Representative, and all taxes.
