Our day starts with a BREAKFAST BUFFET at the Genetti Hotel in Williamsport, PA. Next, we depart for Wellsboro. Ole Covered Wagon Tours is a family-owned business in Wellsboro, PA. Providing horse-drawn covered wagon tours through the beautiful Pine Creek Gorge, also known as the Pennsylvania Grand Canyon in Tioga County. The Canyon stretches approximately 47 miles and is surrounded 165,000 acres of Tioga State Forest. The Grand Canyon also hosts the Leonard Harrison and Colton Point State Parks at either end. In early Fall months, the PA Grand Canyon's trees turn gorgeous shades of yellow, orange, red and more,

Sit back and enjoy our 3 ½ hour OLE COVERED WAGON TOUR. The tour guides are fluent in the history of the canyon going back to the 19th century. They will tell the tale while the horses wind their way on the Pine Creek Rail Trail. This particular ride travels deeper into the canyon ending up at 4 Mile Falls just below Leonard Harrison Park. On this tour, you will see a few cabins and a walking bridge that goes across Pine Creek. When we arrive at our destination, you will have some free time to explore the canyon, there are steps to which you can walk up to the falls or you can stay at the bottom and view from the viewing bridge. There are restrooms at this location. This is a wonderful way to explore the canyon and learn the history of the area. Take a jump into history while enjoying everything the canyon has to offer. In addition to joining us for the horse-drawn covered wagon tour, enjoy a COWBOY DINNER when we return.
