Pike County Fairgrounds Rules & Regulations

1. You must be 18 years or older to reserve a campsite in your name. Adult supervision is required for those under the age of 18 at each campsite.
2. Premises around camping area are to be kept clean and sanitary. Trash is to be placed in proper containers. Holding tanks are to be dumped at dump station only.
3. Open fires are permitted by the use of fire ring only or charcoal grill. Fires must be attended.
4. The Pike County Agricultural Society is not liable in any way for actions, losses, damages, or claims of any type which might arise as a result of a person using the Fairground facilities for camping.
5. No person staying in camper may cause disturbance, nuisance or annoyance as determined by the sole discretion of any members of the Board of Directors of the Agricultural Society or their duly authorized agents.
6. The Directors of the Pike County Agricultural Society and/or its authorized agents will enforce the above rule. The Society reserves the right to take whatever action it deems appropriate, in its sole discretion, to remedy any concern in the camping areas which shall include, without limit, the following: to immediately terminate or cancel the rental agreement, to have the applicant or camper removed from the premises, to reject or refuse camper rental privileges to any applicant without refund of fees.

I have read and understand the above Rules and Regulations and agree to abide by them.
