

Florida Utilities Coordinating Committee Position Statement

The Florida Utilities Coordinating Committee occasionally releases position statements to guide the critical work being done in the utility industry. These statements are meant to provide an understanding of how the organization approaches certain issues. Existing statements are regularly reviewed and updated through the organization's leadership. New statements are developed as new topics arise. Florida Utilities Coordinating Committee members contribute to the development and updating of these documents through collaborative efforts between various Subcommittees and Interest Groups.