...DISCOVER FAMILY FUN IN METAL DETECTING...

...NOVEMBER AND DECEMBER NEWSNOTES...

The "big" hunt was preceded by a practice hunt on Saturday, the 27th of October. At 10 in the morning 18 individuals vied for the honor of finding the most pop-tabs. Winners were...

Ralph Flippo
Joe Walton
Glenn Corder
Keith Reese
Lonna Leist

The cash awards were $2.00, $4.00, $5.00, $6.00 and $2.00, respectively. It is not known what happened to the pop-tabs collected and counted! You may assume the worst!

...OPEN TREASURE HUNT- 11-10-90...

Saturday, November 10, 1990 at Moss Park attracted a turnout of some 80-100 treasure hunters, spouses, friends, children and a chilly wind at the Southeast Orange County Park located off Route 15 near Orlando Jetport.

A continental breakfast greeted the crowd anxious to start the day. Beginning at eight o'clock and ending near five o'clock with the awards ceremony and prizes, the first hunt was a "Competition Hunt." This was followed by a break; then, the first "Silver Hunt." and other hunts which included the "Top Ten Hunt," another "Silver Hunt," and the "Junior" and "Fun & Token Hunt." Inbetween, there were breaks for replacement of those burned-out batteries and a buffet style lunch.

At the lunch break there were raffles held and some prizes awarded to those participating in the hunt and/or the ticket drawing. The winners of the tickets all sold with the exception of one ticket (there were five prizes awarded) were all club members! More on this in the January newsletter.

The winners of the respective hunts are...
