...DISCOVER FAMILY FUN IN METAL DETECTING...

The Club would like to welcome the following new members. They are: Douglas Melvin of the D&F Club (Orange City, Florida); Virginia Morris, Orlando, Fla.; Mindy Roddenberry, Sanford, Fla., and Donald and Rebecca Smith of Titusville, Fla.

REMINDER!! This will be the last mailing for any members who have not paid their dues for 1991. See Lorna at the meeting or call (407) 322-5509. Your promptness will ensure future mailings and news of the CFMDC!!!

February 8, 1991 newsnotes.....

The drawing for the silver dollars drew three lucky ones. They were Don Hurtig, Glen Corder and Richard Herr. The $\frac{1}{2}$ and $\frac{1}{2}$ drawing was won by David Cass. The "bank night" pot went uncollected as #88 was not in attendance so the pot is increased for another try come March 8. For new members you should have your badge on when in attendance so that you are eligible. No badge and non-attendance do not warrant a win!

The Club wishes to express its condolences to Barbie Phillips whose mother passed away January 17 in Indianapolis, IA and to Lonnie Newham whose father passed away recently in Orlando, FL. Notes of cheer are passed to Bill Hunt and Boyd Rodgers who have been convalescing from recent hospital stays in early February.

.....No date set for the Open Hunt as of press time!.....

D&F Coin Shooters & Historical Club would like to announce a change of meeting place for those folks interested in attending. Their new spot is at the "Old Church" meeting room located on the Northeast corner of Granada & Beach Streets in Ormond. The Church is an old white building that sits on a site right next to the Halifax River. Meetings are held the fourth Wednesday of the month and start at 7:30 p.m. Douglas Melvin is the President, and may be reached evenings at (904) 775-6460.

The photograph below shows that at least one of our club members likes to live a dangerous life off the ground!!! Ted Peters is the chap in the lower part of the picture who was part of the team installing the membrane on the new Orlando City Hall. View looks toward the East/West expressway.

CFMDC 1991 Trash & Treasure Hunt- March 2, 1991 at Magnolia Park.

Hunt begins at 10:00 a.m. sharp!
 Location is Magnolia Park near Lake Apopka and 441 in Apopka.
 Early entry fee for members- $5.00
 Day of the hunt- $7.00 for members and guest fee, $12.00 each.

1. Contestants must be a member of CFMDC or a guest of a member.
 2. All entry fees used as CASH PRIZES!
 3. All holes must be filled in BEFORE HUNTING FOR THE NEXT TARGET.
 4. There is quite a bit of trash in the hunt area. This trash should also be collected and turned in for credit.
 5. Be an environmentalist, never leave any piece of junk metal in the ground as you or someone will likely dig it up again at a later date.
-Over a 1000 coins to find PLUS THE NUMBERED PRIZE TOKENS!.....
 Numbered prize tokens will not indicate any specific prize until the hunt is over. The squirrel cage will be used to select a numbered ball, and whoever has that numbered token will then receive the prize being held up. Location will be from 1 to 6" deep, mostly 3" deep or less. The hunt will be 1 hour. RULES: PLAY FAIR, do not pool your finds and take credit only for what coins & tokens you find.
