Uganda National Convention

BY REV. ISSAC MBIJWE, UGANDA NATIONAL SUPERINTENDENT

FGCI is taking ground in Africa and has been a great blessing to Uganda amidst all kinds of challenges. Over 600 pastors have been ordained with FGCI so far. This year we had to take time and pray, realizing that the devil has noticed the impact the fellowship has in the church in Uganda by the ministry of the Word and providing the most needed ordination to the pastors of Uganda. The plan for the National Convention was to be in May 2023 but due to unforeseen circumstances we had to postpone. Through the trials and difficulties we face, we know that there is a greater plan!

This year all the planning went on very well with the youth convention hosted by Liberty Mission (Pastor Isaac's Church) on January 24. The Ladies Convention was hosted by Pastor Israel on January 25. Though the two ministers, Jim and Alison, couldn't get here in time for the youth convention we had a great time in all the sessions; youth, ladies and general. Sister Julie ministered to the youth (92 in attendance) Sister Mary and Sister Alison ministered in a moving way to the ladies (206 in attendance), and Sister Alison and Pastor Jim spoke in the General, (260 in attendance and 83 pastors ordained) on January 27, 2024.

We surely give all the glory to God!
