The printed voice of Trinity Episcopal Church
Weaving God's Unfinished Tapestry

From Rev. Haydie

Rooted in abundance. It's the theme of this year's stewardship campaign, and it's the reality we celebrate every year. At Thanksgiving, our tables celebrate abundance. They're crowded with turkey and sweet potatoes, cranberry sauce and pumpkin pie. We've got family and friends to eat with. Running water to wash the dishes. Heating to keep us warm.

And we celebrate our rootedness, too: our connections to our own family traditions and to that early Pilgrim meal. Our connection to God's great story. Our belovedness. We've been given so much, and we're grateful.

That gratitude is good, but it's not the end of the road. All that abundance... and those roots... are there to strengthen us. They help us blossom, and fruit, and become a blessing to others. To be thankful is to reflect: how will I use the things I've been given? My talents, my skills, my resources? How is God calling me to help others in my community, my church, my family?

I hope that kind of reflection is part of your experience this fall, and I hope you'll think about Trinity's stewardship campaign as part of it. If you haven't received a pledge packet and would like to, please contact the church office or pick one up at the back of the church. When you get it, I hope you'll hold the church's needs in prayer for a while.

Then bring your completed pledge card to church on Sunday, November 26, when it will be collected and blessed during the service. A festive coffee hour will follow the service. Can't join us on the 26th? You're welcome to mail your pledge card or drop it off at the church office. And I hope yours is a blessed Thanksgiving, indeed.

Miffy's Message

When you were a kid did you ever do the activity where you put your hands together with fingers interlocked and said, "Here is the church." Then you held your pointer fingers up in a point and said, "Here is the steeple." Then you pulled your palms apart and said, "Where are all the people?" That is what church will be like on Sunday, November 5th if you don't turn your clock back an hour before going to bed on November 4th. You will have to hang out an hour before church begins or you will miss hearing the Alleluia Youth Choir perform. November 5th is the end of Daylight Saving Time for this year. It is also All Saints Day. Please remember to "Fall Back" one hour before going to bed Saturday, November 4th. You are one of the Saints we will be celebrating!

To celebrate your saints on All Saints Day, bring a picture or memento for the display in the parish hall.

PWCC Ministry Update

We are in the middle of our third presentation of the nine week class, Courage for My Life. The book study, Bible Women: All Their Words and Why They Matter, by Lindsay Hardin Freeman, also continues on Sunday mornings. It continues to be a joy and a challenge to bring the message of God's unconditional love to the residents. Please keep this ministry in your prayers. There has been a request for Thanksgiving Greeting Cards for the residents to send to their families. Any card donations would be appreciated. Also remember, no glitter!

Thank you for the continued support of this ministry. God's Peace,

Rev. Diane

Fall Potluck

Wednesday, November 8, 6:00 pm

Soups will be provided. Bring something to go with them if you can, but more importantly...

Bring yourself for this evening of fellowship and fun!

Interfaith Thanksgiving Service

The Portneuf Valley Interfaith Fellowship will be holding its Thanksgiving Service at 6:00 pm on Sunday, November 19, at Caldwell Park Ward (135 S. 7th Avenue). It's a great chance to begin this holiday by sharing prayers with our neighbors of other faiths. This year's service will focus on gratitude across time and will include reflections, readings, and music from multiple faith traditions. Donations will support the Valley Mission Food Pantry and the Portneuf Valley Interfaith Fellowship. Light refreshments will be served, and all are welcome.

Deacon Visit

We'll have the great pleasure of welcoming the Ven. Eileen O'Shea as a guest preacher on November 19th. Longtime congregants will remember Rev. Eileen as a Trinity parishioner ordained as a deacon almost 30 years ago; these days, she's serving as our Diocese's Archdeacon.

This will be an unusual service for Trinity: a combination of Morning Prayer and Eucharist. While deacons can't consecrate communion elements, they can distribute them—so Geoff Friedley will start us out with Morning Prayer, and Rev. Eileen will share pre consecrated communion elements after the Offertory. That means Trinity will have Eucharist every Sunday in November!

Responding to War

Since the start of the current Israel-Hamas war, Episcopal Relief & Development (ERD) has been supporting long-time partners in the Holy Land including Al Ahli Hospital, a ministry of the Episcopal Diocese of Jerusalem, to provide emergency medical support in Gaza. Despite being hit by two explosions that damaged buildings and claimed hundreds of lives, the hospital is still serving those who are in need of care. Episcopal Relief & Development stands with the brave staff of Al Ahli Hospital as they risk their lives to help others.

Please pray for peace in the Holy Land and consider making a contribution to ERD's Middle East Fund to help meet the growing needs of all people in the region. For more information, visit at episcopalrelief.org. To contribute, scan the QR code at left.

Parish Hall Steps Repaired

Our bedraggled steps on the South side of the Parish Hall have received a facelift. John Scott and James Beer replaced the face and trim on the steps following demolition of rotting wood. We used the same masonry paint color that is on the concrete benches. Trim is cedar painted a dark brown. CJ Fults replaced the carpet. Repair of gutters above the door should help keep water off the newly repaired steps. Thank you to all who donate to help keep the facility in good shape.

From a Trinity parishioner...

The annual pledge drive has begun. This happens every year and funds many functions that keep the doors open at Trinity. We are always asked to commit time, talent, and treasure to the point we are comfortable.

As long-time parishioner, I have seen years when we have experienced wringing of hands over finances and years where pledges were higher and we easily made budget. Regardless, when making a pledge, it is always a faith commitment of many. I am betting we will be ok again this year.

The recent rehabilitation of the steps on the Parish Hall is a good example of time, talent and treasure. Volunteer time, talent of several parishioners, and treasure to purchase materials came together for a stunning result. Thanks to all who made it happen.

Go forth and rejoice!

Last month at Trinity

99 pounds. That's how much pet food we collected in October for the men and women participating in this year's Homeless Stand Down. 71.5 pounds of dog food; 27.5 pounds of cat food. What a great way to honor St. Francis, who cared so much for the neediest among us and the animals around them. and...

61 bags. That's how many care packages with fresh fruit, yummy homemade treats, and more that Trinity delivered to members of the ISU community during Midterm Week. Each gift bag is a cheerful reminder of the community's caring!

Episcopal Church Women

Episcopal Church Women (ECW) met October 21st in the parish hall. Kathleen Kangas reported that 61 mid-term bags were purchased. We would like to thank those who helped make the bags a success again this year.

The cabinet being built to hold all the music for both Trinity Choir and Alleluia Choir was completely funded by a Rose Grant given by the Episcopal Diocese of Idaho. Therefore, ECW will not need to help with funding that project. It was decided that we would pay half of the cost for electrical upgrades on the church. Our pledge for that project is $1,000 of the $2,000 bid.

Rev. Diane will update us when she gets more information from PWCC on the Christmas Angel Tree. The gifts are for an inmate to give to her children or grandchildren for Christmas. Rev. Diane still needs greeting cards for PWCC. Thanksgiving cards would be appreciated. Please refrain from glitter, pop-ups, etc.

Parish Life Committee (Monica Eckert) is hosting a pot luck on November 8th at 6:00 PM in the parish hall. Monica and Miffy are making soup. Bring your favorite pot luck food to share. Monica has a fun evening planned.

Our annual Trinity Christmas Fair will be held December 10 and 17 with gift options being available on the 10th and cookie plates added on December 17th. ECW will meet on December 16th to make cookie plates for the sale. This is a fundraiser that gives us money to help with church ministries as needed.

The next meeting of ECW will be November 18th at 11:00 in the parish hall. All women age 16 and up are members and welcome to attend.

Looking Ahead...

Advent Wreaths. Join us in making Advent wreaths at coffee hour on December 3! Bring your old ring if you have one; come ready to learn if you don't. Rev. Diane will be there to guide and explain, and there will be plenty of greens, candles, and extra rings.

Holiday Fair. Our annual Trinity Christmas Fair will be held during coffee hour on December 10 and 17th. Gifts will be available on the 10th and cookie plates will be added on the 17th.

Stewardship Update

As of October 25, Trinity had received

- 75,598.20 (86%) of its 2023 pledge income.
- $9,970.81 (199%) of its anticipated 2023 open plate income.

Thank you for all your support of Trinity's community and ministries!
