I had the privilege of meeting Janice Lombardo via the Speaker Talent Search run by Rebecca Hall Gruyter, as one of the panelists. I then had the opportunity to feature Jance in my podcast.

The magical thing about life is that the universe sends us angels and guardians to help us navigate life as life unfolds. Janice was one such gift for me from the universe. We have become friends, and she has been a reliable source of insight and guidance as I navigate my husband's condition of Parkinson's combined with Dementia (Lewy Body Dementia).

I highly recommend you reach out to Janice Lombardo, if you our someone you know needs peace and assistance when life throws an unexpected punch. Through her, I have met others who have become my go to people for navigating uncharted territories.
