To begin 2024, following the political news like one would follow sports or fashion news isn't going to get you "The News". It will get you the rhetoric and some facts, but it's the facts that need the explaining. So whether news comes from the left or right, if you care check, it out.

Today NBC, CBS, ABC, CNN, MSNBC all noted that new job posts are up. Great, but further looking show the highest demands are for government jobs by percent. Wow – not so great. Government is hiring with our tax dollars. They are supposed to shrink, not expand, government jobs. Most don't get it, so you might as well stop reading this now. That's our tax dollars at work? We're hiring more people to pay with your tax dollars??? Damn.....

I gave up blaming politicians & political parties for our "dire straits." Voters just don't get truly engaged with real political knowledge; I get it. But that's why we are in the hole we're in. Who wants to fight for things not understandable because the PRESS isn't generally truthful.

We are already damaged by our illegal immigration flow from all over the world. FBI director, Christopher Wray yesterday testified to Congress that for every agent he has to investigate computer hacking, spying and other criminal acts against the United States, China alone has already migrated thru our borders - 50 Chinese Communists disrupters for every one agent he has to work on a case. We are screwed. Over 3 million total illegals from all over the world and we still don't have a handle on it. How can we even be the same country 5 years down the road. This is only the second problem I've noted.

Who elects seeming nice political figures with no conscience of a great America? We the voters should. Where have all the leaders gone? The Press is the voters biggest enemy because they present news each side wants to hear, not the truth. Reporters use to tell us what's happening. Today we have journalists that give viewers and readers a story so we follow, and they can sell advertising and claim x-amount of followers!

If you always vote for the same political party your part of the problem. Because one party can't always be right. Yep, I have family and friends that do – but it's no use arguing, its bad enough creating political foes out of ignorance, let alone turning family members against each other.. Family over politics and hope for a wake-up call. WHEN VOTING, DO YOU LOOK AT A PERSON OR PARTIES PAST RECORD AND YOU VOTE A CURE OR ARE YOU A PLACEBO?
