St. Anselm's Parish is a Catholic community formed by families, individuals and clergy that worship together, celebrate the sacramental life of the Church, and seek to live the Gospel of Jesus Christ everyday. We welcome, serve, and educate according to the Catechism of the Catholic Church.

Fr. Gabriel's Reflection for Easter Sunday Yr B

Beloved Parish Family of St Anselm,

On the morning of the resurrection (Easter), Jesus greeted the women who went to the tomb: Peace, He said. Then He went on: Do not be afraid. That is the great Easter message from the risen savior, because Jesus has overcome the great obstacle even of death. Whatever our pain as a parish community and as individuals has been, Jesus continues to offer us his peace and healing, especially in the sacraments. Thus, I say to you all, Peace.

As the soldiers crucified Jesus, the Jewish and Roman authorities thought that was the end of it. But it wasn't. The women found an empty tomb and a messenger with the word of life - He is not here. He has risen. And because of that everything changed.

May the resurrection of Christ bring us peace and healing as a parish family and as individuals. May the Easter faith inspire us to trust in God's providence for renewed strength and vitality in our parish life and personal challenges. Let us embrace each other as we journey along.

May the peace of Christ reign in your hearts this Easter and always.

Green Tip: Keep in daily prayers a request for the grace to be a protector of God's handiwork.

Pope Francis, LAUDATO SI,' Ch.6 – Ecological Education and Spirituality, III. Ecological Conversion, ¶217: . The ecological crisis is a summons to profound interior “ecological” conversion where the effects of our encounter with Jesus Christ be-come evident in our relationship with the world around us. Living our vocation to be protectors of God's handiwork is essential to a life of virtue; it is not an optional or secondary aspect of our Christian experience.

Happy Easter! This Sunday's 2nd collection will benefit our St. Vincent de Paul Conference. The Conference could not do its work without you and we thank you for your support. Your donations provide modest financial assistance to those in need in our community to help pay for rent, utilities and/or essential living expenses depending on the particular needs of each client.

Easter is a time of rebirth and celebration. Easter also gives us the opportunity to look inward and examine our own hearts. This could be a good time to think, pray and see if you are called to share in this Ministry, perhaps as a working member of the St. Anselm's - St. Vincent de Paul Conference. If engaging in the community in this way speaks to you, please get in touch! Our cell phone number is (415) 686-3324 and our email address is svdp94957@gmail.com. We'd be happy to answer any questions and invite you to join one of our monthly meetings where you can learn more about what we do. We promise that if you feel called to do this humbling and meaningful work, your heart will be full and you won't be disappointed.

Thank you for considering the opportunity to join our St. Anselm Conference of St. Vincent de Paul and thank you also for your continued financial support. We are so appreciative of your generosity.

Your St. Anselm/ St. Vincent de Paul Conference team:
Libby Carra, Gregory Doyle, Sharon Doyle, Bill Langley, Elizabeth Melone, Pat Miller, and Therese Pedemonte
