Evangelismos women's monastery

The island of Patmos, Greece - a holy place, blessed by Saint John the Beloved, Saint Amphilochios the lover of trees, Metropolitan Kallistos Ware, and recently canonized Saint Gavrilia, the "ascetic of love." Patmos has been a spiritual pilgrimage site for generations, known to Christians throughout the ages as 'The Jerusalem of the Aegean'.

At the core of this pilgrimage, we will be following in the footsteps of Saint Gavrilia, with readings, talks and exploration.

Jennifer Anna Rich author and owner of Poustinia Press, will lead the morning gatherings with a spiritual talk, prayers of stillness, and discussion.

Jennifer Nahas, Axia facilitator and outdoor guide, will lead a mid-day activity including contemplative walks on ancient footpaths that criss-cross the island.

Special guest: Theologian & Professor Valerie Karras will facilitate the evening gathering before dinner with a theological talk, prayers, and discussion.

Ioanna Jeanne Knights, theologian and co-founder of Gardens of Discovery on Patmos, will lead us in an understanding of the interwoven history of Patmos and its theology of care of creation today.

Cost: $3250, excluding airfare

Pilgrims will meet at the Athen's airport on August 27th, spend 10 glorious days together, and be returned back to the airport on September 6th.
