Loves has a plan to open 23 new locations this year. They will also be adding 360 new restaurants. Two new stores, (with one in Louisiana and the other in Texas), have already been opened.

reminder

No more Pilot or Flying J. Friendly reminder but our cards no longer work at Pilot or Flying J locations as of January 1st. If you try to use our cards there, you will get a message that says Limit Exceeded and it will decline.

fuel your wander

We're Kris and Hillary with Fuel Your Wander! We're an adventurous couple always ready to travel somewhere new along with our dog, Axle. We've both traveled around the world extensively and love experiencing new places and cultures. Now, we mainly travel around the US in our RV while still managing full-time corporate careers.

In 2021, we purchased our first RV, which was a Super C motorhome. Admittedly, this was a total impulse decision after our travel plans kept getting cancelled due to the pandemic and both our jobs went fully remote. We flew to pick it up and had absolutely no idea what we were doing.

A year later, we made the decision to live and travel in our RV full time and sold our house. In the past 2 years, we've traveled around the US to 36 states and recently purchased a new Class A motorhome to better fit our full time RV lifestyle. And we've never been happier!

We launched Fuel Your Wander and started creating content as a way to share our experiences and inspire others to plan their next adventure. Our goal is to help others turn their dream of travel into a reality. We believe life is too short to start living the life you've always wanted.

influencer corner

Fuel is one of our biggest expenses living and traveling in an RV. We have a diesel motorhome with a 150 gallon tank so fuel can be quite expensive.

Also, we like to stop at truck stops since we have a large rig, which tends to have more expensive fuel prices. We love that we can use our Open Roads card to get a discount at participating locations.

We use the app to find locations with the largest discount. We've saved hundreds of dollars in the past year with our card!
