Alaka‘i: Come to worship God whose love was revealed in Jesus.
Let all the ends of the earth turn to our God.

Anaina: We will worship the Almighty and sing praises.
We will proclaim good news to others.

Alaka‘i: Beloved, we are called to love as God loves us.
We are to love one another as sisters and brothers.

Anaina: Everyone who loves is born of God and knows God.
We seek to let God’s love be perfected in us.

Alaka‘i: Remember that you have been baptized.
God claims you and has high expectations of you.

Anaina: Christ is the vine; we are the branches.
We will bear fruit when we abide in the vine.

Open our senses to your direction, amazing God, so we may be alert to opportunities you give us. Fill us with good news to share with those who seek meaning for their lives. We are here because we need the good news ourselves. There is much in life that we do not understand. We seek to know your Word and to be led by it. Recall us to the vows of our baptism, reconfirming in us the covenant promises that link us to you and to one another. As we meet you here, our hearts are lifted up in praise. May our worship glorify your name and be pleasing to you. Amen.

1 John 4:11-13 ¹¹ Dear friends, since God so loved us, we also ought to love one another.

¹² No one has ever seen God; but if we love one another, God lives in us and his love is made complete in us.

¹³ This is how we know that we live in him and he in us: He has given us of his Spirit.

It is an honor to celebrate Rev. Chun's 100th birthday.

Richard C P Chun grew up in Honolulu. He was the youngest of two children. He was a graduate of Iolani High School. Richard attended Temple University, then Parson College.

After receiving his degree, he attended Hartford Seminary.

Richard was ordained in 1950, he then began his service as a Pastor. He started at Lanai Union Church, then continued his service at Granville Federated Church, Hilo United Community Church, Lihue Christian Church, Saint John Church in Lancaster, Kapa'a First Hawaiian Church, and then Princeville Church of the Pacific. Richard knew at an early age that he wanted to serve in the ministry.

In his youth he was often a leader in the Christian Endeavor Society. He believed in what the organization was doing and felt it was important. He believed that caring and loving others would help to bring about a better world. He has done this throughout his years in the ministry, his work volunteering around the world, and everyday life.

Please join us in wishing Rev. Chun a very special 100th birthday!

NĀ PULE O KA ‘OHANA: The Prayers of the Family
Please keep the following in your daily prayers:

- Beverly
- Israel/Gaza
- Ukraine

Everything? Yes, God wants us to talk with Him about everything. How often should we pray? The biblical answer is “pray without ceasing” (1 Thessalonians 5:17). We should keep a running conversation going with God all day long. There is really no special formula on how to pray in the Bible. We should just do it. We can pray under any and all circumstances. Prayer develops our relationship with God and demonstrates our trust and utter dependence upon Him.

NĀ ‘ŌLELO HO‘OKIPA MAI - WORDS OF WELCOME:

A warm welcome and aloha to all who worship with us this morning. We are all called to a new way of living under God’s wonderful grace in our Savior. If you are a guest, it is a pleasure to have you worshipping with us.

Please help us know who you are by signing our guest book.

If you have prayer needs, please fill out the request form in the bulletin and include in the offering bowl upon collection.

KAPA‘A FIRST HAWAIIAN CHURCH, UCC
(The Queen’s Church)
Established in 1836

Aloha and welcome to the worship service in Hawaiian and English of our Lord Jesus Christ, here at the Kapa‘a First Hawaiian Church, United Church of Christ.

This church was originally established on the grounds of the Coco Palms Resort in the year 1836 by Kaua‘i’s beloved Queen Deborah Kapule. The simple grass hut was later replaced with a wooden frame building. In 1880, the frame building was dismantled and hauled over 2 ½ miles of very rough road and reassembled here in Kapa`a, to serve the community until 1948 when the present church sanctuary and building was dedicated.

The original Queen’s Church was built for the ali‘i and high chiefs with the commoners not being allowed inside the building. Knowing her people’s love for singing, however, the Queen permitted those who wished to stand outside, through rain or sunshine, to sing along with the royal family.

The stained glass windows above the altar were graciously given by Bill and Ada Hicks. The center panel, depicting a Cross, symbolizes Christ with his arms outstretched and a maile lei around his shoulders. The left and right panels feature native flowers and plants surrounding a “kāhili” - the “kāhili” is a symbol of Hawaiian royalty.

The stained glass windows above the entrance were graciously given by three families. The center panel was given by Carl and Judy Germany “in memory of James S. Killian, late husband of Judy, and in honor of their son, Chuck Germany, in becoming a minister.” The left panel was given by Levinia Ka‘auwai and family in memory of Licentiate Rev. Samuel K. Ka‘auwai. The right panel was given by George, Esther, and Ross Teraoka in memory of Rev. Isaiah K. Ka‘auwai and Sunday School superintendent Daisy C. Ka‘auwai. The three panels present one large scene. The prism star represents Christ’s presence in the islands, the rainbow serves as a promised symbol of peace, and the native fruits symbolize growth.

All are welcome to our worship services. This is God’s house where we meet together. God invites us to listen, to cast our sins, our sorrows, and our anxieties on our Creator, Redeemer, and Sustainer. God sets us free and empowers us to live as God’s children. O magnify the Lord, for God is greatly to be praised!

“ ‘Oli‘oli aku la au, iā lākou i ‘ōlelo mau ai ia‘u,
E hele kākou i loko o ka hale o Iehova.” (Halelu 122:1)
“I was glad when they said unto me,
Let us go unto the house of the Lord.” (Psalm 122:1)
