Parent Meeting with Rev. Mingo

July 23, 2020 at The Village at 3060

One mission of the Evanston Bulldog Youth Association is to share information and services that will benefit not only the youth in our organization but the family unit. We are participating in a series of informational sessions both live (in our parent meetings) and online meetings (webinars). We hope that you enjoy the information that is being shared and find it useful.

If you need further information or would like to have a personal confidential conversation with someone, please reach out to Rev. Mingo at 513-602-4619. If you would like to explore any services from UMADAOP, please call 513-541-7099

Thank you! Be safe. Be Well-
The Evanston Bulldog Family

of Cincinnati

Days of Operation: Monday-Friday 8AM-5PM

UMADAOP Urban Minority Alcoholism and Drug Abuse Outreach Program of Cincinnati provides programming with the belief that substance abuse is best prevented and treated when the cultural dynamics of a group are addressed and included in the process of prevention, treatment recovery and education. Chemical dependency is viewed as an illness of the total person, which has physiological, psychological, social-cultural, and spiritual components that require a holistic approach. Our commitment, integrity, stewardship, and resiliency are the core values of who we are.

- Services-The Urban Minority Alcoholism and Drug Abuse Outreach Program of Cincinnati, Inc., manages programs that cover a broad range of community services. These services include but are not limited to Adolescent and Adult intervention Services.

Did you know we have a website? check out www.dawg4life.com - let us know what you think !

You may receive a text message from (833) 664-0540- This is our automated text number to send out information. If you have questions, see Marye

Parents:

Due to the Covid19 virus, the coaches are not allowed to share water bottles with the children. Every child should have received a new grey water bottle for practice. We will provide cold water for refills, but every child should bring their personal bottle. We also have bottles of water should your child forget their personal one. If your child did not get a bottle, please see Coach Jerry or Marye.

2020 Evanston Bulldogs Parent's Guide

Every Parent should have received a 2020 information booklet with registration. IF you have not received one or you need to fill out your child's registration paperwork, please see Coach Jerry or Marye to get one.

Also, you can pay your child's fees either in person (see Milan, Marye or Coach Tink) or pay online at www.dawg4life.com. We will make sure you have a receipt for your payment.

ALL CHILDREN 4-5-6 do not have a FEE!
