Why Choose White Dog Studios?

Michael Hagerty, the Founder and Principal Designer, believes that several factors differentiate White Dog Studios from the typical Design/Build companies:

• Instinct for distilling the absolute musts/ critical needs and allowing these to shape the design direction

• a natural gift for seeing possibilities that might otherwise not be considered

• the ability to perform the tasks of any building professional involved, and to direct those tasks

• the experience and accumulated knowledge of having delivered dozens of compelling projects

• a track record of very high client satisfaction

• personalized attention and communication on the Client's terms

• painstaking and unique custom design services
