LETTER OF RECOMMENDATION TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

I take this opportunity to evaluate Mr. Kunjan Chauhan's potential for graduate study in the field of Bachelor of Commerce.

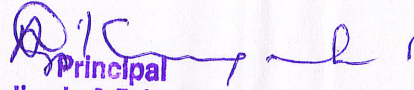

I have known Kunjan since June 1999. In academics, he showed a consistent improvement.

Not only had Kunjan been very regular in his attendance but he also added an element of vitality in the class by raising interesting questions. He is highly motivated towards expanding his horizons. He sought my help in its development and his clarity of written expression and thought was evident from his paper.

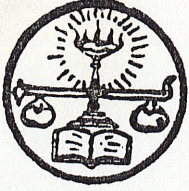

Kunjan also had good analytical skills. He has managed to tackle any situation that he has confronted with great skill and patience and has analysed it from all perspectives before taking a decision. He is quite patient and sure-footed in whatever he ventures.

Kunjan has a pleasing personality and has always felt free to communicate with his teachers. He also seemed to be quite popular among his colleagues. I am confident about his ability to give full justice to the fashion design, as he is very serious about his career. I would thus strongly recommend him to a university of good repute such as yours, to shape his career and fulfill his ambitions.

Sincerely Yours,
