Food Safety:

Hand washing:

Hand washing facilities must be located in a temporary food establishment. Potable hot and cold tempered running water under pressure with suitable hand cleaner, dispensed paper towels, and a waste receptacle must be provided, unless otherwise approved. If approved, when food exposure is limited, the following may be acceptable substitutes:

- A large, insulated container with a spigot, which can be turned on to allow potable, clean, warm water to flow over one's hands into a waste receiving bucket of equal or larger volume; suitable hand cleaner; disposable towels, and a waste receptacle.
- Chemically treated towelettes may be used for cleaning hands in a temporary food establishment if the food items offered are pre-packaged or otherwise protected from contamination by hands AND a hand washing facility is available at the event and used by employees following toilet use.

When to Wash:

Food employees must wash their hands and exposed portions of the arms after touching bare human body parts, using the toilet room, handling animals, coughing/sneezing, using a handkerchief, using tobacco, eating/drinking, handling soiled equipment/utensils, as often as necessary to prevent cross-contamination, when switching between raw and ready-to-eat food, and after engaging in other activities that contaminate the hands.

How to Wash:

Food employees shall clean their hands and exposed portions of the arms in a properly equipped hand washing facility by vigorously rubbing together the surfaces of the lathered hands and arms and thoroughly rinsing with clean water. Employees shall pay particular attention to the areas underneath the fingernails and between the fingers. To avoid recontaminating hands, food employees may use disposable paper towels or similar barriers when touching surfaces such as faucet handles.

Employee Health:

The person in charge must exclude employees who have the following conditions:

- Symptoms such as diarrhea, fever, vomiting, jaundice, sore throat with fever. (A food employee with vomiting or diarrhea must be free of symptoms for at least 24 hours.)
- Illnesses such as Salmonella Typhi, Shigella, Eschericia coli 0157:H7, Hepatitis A, or Norovirus.

Hygiene:

Food employees shall maintain a high degree of personal cleanliness and shall conform to good hygienic practices during all working periods. Food employees shall have clean outer garments and wear effective hair restraints. Smoking, eating, and drinking are not allowed by food employees in the food preparation and service areas. All non-working unauthorized persons must be restricted from the food preparation and service areas.

No Bare Hand Contact with Ready-to-Eat Food:

Food employees may not have contact with exposed ready-to-eat food with their bare hands. Suitable utensils, such as deli paper, spatulas, tongs, dispensing equipment, or gloves shall be used.

Temperature: Food

All ribs must be brought up to an internal Temperature of 165 degrees F

Cross Contamination:

Raw Ribs cannot come in contact with food that is ready to eat or being prepared to be eaten.

Clean or change your work surface between using raw product and food preparation to be eaten. You may not use a marinade that has been in contact with raw ribs as a base for a sauce regardless of whether it will be cooked further or not! If you wish to use a marinade as a base for a sauce reserve some separately!
