Running out of time!!!!

Praying we Find Someone!!!!

We are still actively searching for someone to replace Tracy Moody as VBS Coordinator. The children enjoy this program immensely and we hope someone finds the time to bring it to life for them.

CHANGE IN DATE

Altar Society meeting will be held on Thursday, April 18th at 6:30pm in the Parish Hall.

Construction in the Church

Beginning Monday, April 8th through Friday, April 12th, the church will be closed to everyone. We are finally getting the new audio system installed in the church. They will be working inside and outside in all areas of the church so please do not come inside. We are also adding a trim border to the steps of the Altar in hopes that the contrast may help with trip and fall hazards for our priests, deacons and others. Weekday masses will be held in the Parish Hall. Would like to remind everyone that Thursday's mass will be celebrated in the morning. Thank you all for your cooperation.

Second Collection for the weekend of 4/20 – 4/21 is for The Assumption Seminary.

The Second Collection for the weekend of 4/27 – 4/28 is for Catholic Home Mission Appeal.

KJT News:

April 28, 2024 – All members of KJT #81 Poth are invited to our quarterly meeting. Guests are also welcome. The meeting will be held on Sunday, April 28, 2024 8:30am at the Blessed Sacrament Church Parish Hall in Poth, TX.

Today's reading from the Gospel of John is proclaimed on the Second Sunday of Easter in each of the lectionary cycles. This fact alone should alert us to the significance of the encounters with the resurrected Jesus that are described in this reading. This Gospel combines two scenes: Jesus' appearance to his disciples after his Resurrection and Jesus' dialogue with Thomas, the disciple who doubted.

Part of the mystery of Jesus' Resurrection is that he appeared to his disciples not as a spirit, but in bodily form. We do not know, however, exactly what this form looked like. Earlier in John's Gospel, when Mary of Magdala first encountered the risen Jesus, she did not recognize him until he spoke to her. In Luke's Gospel, the disciples walking along the road to Emmaus did not recognize Jesus until he broke bread with them. We know from readings such as today's that in his resurrected form, Jesus was not bound by matter; he appeared to the disciples inside a home even though the door was locked. Yet the disciples could still touch the marks of his Crucifixion.

In today's Gospel, Jesus greets his disciples with the gift of peace. Jesus then commissions his disciples to continue the work that he has begun; as Jesus was sent by God, so Jesus sends his disciples. He gives his disciples the gift of the Holy Spirit so that they will be able to accomplish this task. Jesus' words to his disciples also highlight the integral connection between the forgiveness of sins and the gift of the Holy Spirit. With the grace of the Holy Spirit, we can share forgiveness and reconciliation with others. Thomas, the doubting disciple in today's reading, represents the reality of the Church that comes after this first community of witnesses to Jesus. All but the first disciples of Jesus must believe without seeing. Like Thomas, we may doubt the news that Jesus, who was crucified and buried, appeared to his disciples. Our human nature seeks hard evidence that the Jesus who appeared to his disciples after his death is indeed the same Jesus who was crucified. Thomas is given the opportunity to be our representative in obtaining this evidence. He gives witness to us that the Jesus who was raised is the same Jesus who died. Through the gift of the Holy Spirit, we are among those who are blessed, for we have not seen and yet believe.

On Monday, April 8th, the celebration of the Solemnity of the Annunciation of the Lord recalls the historical event of the Angel Gabriel appearing to the Virgin Mary, as found in Luke 1:26–38. It also celebrates the Church's faith in the underlying reality that took place at that moment in time. It celebrates the Incarnation, making this solemnity not only a Marian solemnity, but first and foremost a Christological one. Though Christmas commemorates the birth of Christ, the Annunciation commemorates the Incarnation within the womb of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Most certainly, this solemnity is also a Marian celebration. We celebrate the Virgin Mary's perfect "Yes" to the plan of the Father. We celebrate her humility, obedience, docility, and especially her motherhood of God and man. This solemnity is also a celebration of the Father in Heaven because it reveals the beginning of the pinnacle of His perfect plan of salvation. That moment in time, the moment of the Incarnation, holds significance beyond comprehension. This moment was in the mind of the Father in Heaven from all eternity and took place in a hidden way, known only to this lowly and humble virgin.

As we celebrate this glorious solemnity, ponder all these central mysteries of our faith. Faith must be celebrated, not only believed. It must be proclaimed, rejoiced in, loved, and lived. Profess your faith in the Incarnation and seek the intercession of the Virgin Mary. Ask her to pray for you that you may imitate her "Yes" to the will of the Father in Heaven, so that you can continue to bring forth His divine Son in your soul, so that He will continue to be made manifest to the world through you.

Prayer: *Most glorious and ever-virgin Mary, when the Archangel Gabriel appeared to you to announce the coming of God within your virginal womb, you inquired with humility how this could be.
The Archangel spoke further, and you assented to this divine mystery with all your heart. Please pray for me, that I may always consent to the will of God in my life so that your divine Son may also be conceived in my soul to continue His saving work of redemption.
Mother Mary, pray for me.
Jesus, I trust in You.*

Child Abuse Prevention Month

During the month of April, the 4th Grade CCD classes will be collecting items for the Children's Alliance of South Texas in recognition of National Child Abuse Prevention Month. All items will be donated to The Children's Alliance office in Floresville and used to help children who have been victims of abuse in our community.

Items currently in need include the following:

Tote bags
Colored pencils
Water colors
Fidget toys
Sensory Stickers
Journals
Squishmallows
Boxes of tissue

Items can be sent with students to CCD classes and/or put in the collection box at the entrance of the church. Thank You for your generosity.

Blue Sunday April 28th

In support of Child Abuse Prevention Month, the JCDA is inviting all to participate in the day of prayer and other events they are working on.
Plans are still being made so keep an eye on the bulletin for further details.
