2016-02-22	Anonymous	3	Just OK	Staff is not very respectful of your time. Waited 10-30 minutes for my appts even though the staff was sitting & chatting at the front desk.The needles were a little painful. Had to be readjusted. You are left alone in the room with a timer. When the timer goes off, it is a very loud & annoying ringtone that NEVER SHUTS OFF until the staff returns. Couldn't get up to shut it off since I was covered with needles. Knocked on the wall for 10 minutes before she returned to stop the alarm. No apology	Follow Up Acupuncture	Dr. Andrea Schilling LA.c, DAOM
