

Introduction |

Bluefield Land and Trivallis are working in partnership in an effort to deliver 10 new affordable homes on land at the former Button Factory, Catherine Crescent, Porth.

The scheme would deliver much-needed social-rented homes, comprising of 6no. 4-person, 2 bedroom houses, and 4no. 2-person, 1-bedroom flats.

The purpose of today's engagement event is to provide local residents with more details of the proposals, and seek their feedback on the scheme, in advance of submitting an application for planning permission.
