From Fr. Mike's Desk

During the Eucharistic Prayer, we recite the Mystery of Faith, right after the Consecration of the Bread and Wine as they are now the Body and Blood of Christ. We now may say, "We proclaim your death, O Lord, and profess your Resurrection until you come again." These are the words we use now, as they are closer to the words said in Latin. However, we used to say, "Christ as died, Christ has Risen, Christ will come again." The words remind us of what we are concentrating on during these first two Sundays of Advent, especially for this second week.

In the reading from Isaiah, we are told of the First Coming, when he tells the people that they can take comfort in the Lord who is about to set them free from captivity from Babylon. God will return them to Israel so that they may be called to God's mountaintop. They will be heralds of the Good News, and the Divine Light will shine from them, as the Messiah will empower them when He comes. The First Coming is also proclaimed in the appearance of John the Baptist. John reminds us that he is the voice crying out in the wilderness (as seen in the sayings of Isaiah) who is preparing the way of the Lord. He will tell us that he baptizes with water, but the one to follow will baptize with the Holy Spirit.

The Second Coming of Christ is seen in today's second reading; the Second Letter of Saint Peter. As Peter writes, "But according to his promise we await a new heaven and a new earth." St. Peter writes to an audience, who like many today, did not believe that Christ would be coming again. As you may recall, the early Church, even St. Paul, believed that Christ's return would be almost immediate. When His coming was delayed, some began to believe that He would never come back. Peter is warning people not to make this same mistake; as he says, "...whether it takes one hundred years or one thousand years, Christ will return in His own time, and He will indeed come to judge the living and the dead. As he writes, 'But the day of the Lord will come like a thief.' So be ready, for we do not know the time or day when the Scriptures will be fulfilled.

How will Christ find us when He returns? Will He find us living according to the contemporary wisdom of the modern world that calls us away from our true life with God? St. Peter gives us good advice when it comes to waiting for the Second Coming as he writes, "Therefore, beloved, since you await these things, be eager to be found without spot or blemish before Him at peace." What St. Peter writes about can be a real problem for us here as so many do not believe that Christ will return at the end of the world. It has been 2,024 years but remember who it is who made the promise. It is none other than Jesus the Son of God, God made one of us. He is the Living Word of God, so what He says is the truth. So be ready!

Here are some of the happenings during Advent. On Sunday, December 17th we will have our Youth Choir Christmas Concert in the Church, at a time to be announced, Tuesday, December 12th, at 8:00 PM we will have Advent Lessons and Carols, on Sunday, December 17th at 3:00 PM, our annual Mass for Deceased Children. On Wednesday, December 19th from 2:00 - 3:00 PM and 7:00 - 9:00 PM there will be Advent Confessions in preparation for Christmas.

Our Christmas Eve and Day Schedule goes as follows: Sunday, December 24th the Fourth Sunday of Advent we will have our usual Saturday Night/Sunday Morning Masses. Namely, Saturday at 5:00 PM, Sunday Morning at 7:30 AM, 9:30 AM, and 11:30 AM. As we move into the day the Masses will be for Christmas Eve and Day. Sunday, December 24th Christmas Eve: 4:00 PM Mass with Children's Choir in the Church. Likewise we will have 4:00 PM Mass in the Gym. 6:00 PM Mass, 8:00 PM Mass, and 12:00 Midnight are each in the Church. On Monday Christmas Day, our Mass Schedule will be 7:30 AM, 9:30 AM, 11:30 AM and the final Mass being 1:00 PM all in the Church. There will be no Evening Mass on Christmas Day.

Happy Advent!

Fr. Mike

Next Week's Readings

Third Sunday of Advent

December 17, 2023

First Reading - Isaiah 61:1-2A, 10-11

Psalms - Luke 1:46-48, 49-50, 53-54

Second Reading - 1 Thessalonians 5:16-24

Gospel - John 1:6-8, 19-28

Next Week's Gospel Question

In John's Gospel we will hear John the Baptist state that "I am the voice of one crying out in the desert, make straight the way of the Lord". John gives testimony so that everyone who hears his words might prepare themselves for the coming of Jesus who will baptize them in the Holy Spirit.

During Advent, we have time to prepare ourselves in the 'way of the Lord', becoming better disciples so when Jesus arrives on Christmas Day we will be conformed to Him to better serve out our mission in the world. At this moment how are you preparing yourself in the 'way of the Lord', and what changes must you still make to your life to serve out your mission?

Evening Confessions	Tues. Dec. 19th 7:00 pm-9:00 pm

The Advent season is a time of preparation that directs our hearts and minds to Christ's second coming at the end of time and to the anniversary of Our Lord's birth on Christmas. From the earliest days of the Church, people have been fascinated by Jesus' promise to come back. But the scripture readings during Advent tell us not to waste our time with predictions. Advent is not about speculation. Our Advent readings call us to be alert and ready, not weighted down and distracted by the cares of this world (Lk 21:34-36). Like Lent, the liturgical color for Advent is purple since both are seasons that prepare us for great feast days. Advent also includes an element of penance in the sense of preparing, quieting, and disciplining our hearts for the full joy of Christmas.

As you prepare your home for a joyous Christmas with family and friends, allow yourself time to prepare your heart for Christ the Lord. Join fellow parishioners in prayer, liturgy, meditation, reconciliation, scripture and music.

Mass for Deceased Children

On Sunday, December 17th at 3:00 PM, there will be a Celebration in memory of our deceased children.

If you know of someone who has lost a child, or you choose to attend Mass, your presence is welcomed and appreciated.

If you are aware of someone who has lost a child and would like to invite them, please feel free to extend an invitation.

If you have questions, please call Deacon Jim at 516 322-0373.

Upcoming Bereavement Support Group

The death of a loved one can be the most profound emotional experience we will ever endure. The grief which follows can be painful and challenging. The St. Edward's Bereavement Support Group provides an opportunity to be listened to, understood, nurtured and loved, and will give you methods and tools to help get you through the grieving process. A new Group for those bereaved 6 months or longer is now being formed. The Group will meet once per week for two hours, for eight weeks beginning on Thursday, January 11th at 7:00 PM.

Begins on 1/11/24
Ends on 3/7/24

Registration is required. Please register early as the Group will be limited in size. The registration deadline is: Monday, 1/8/24.

To register, please send an email with your name and telephone number to:

Bereavement@st-edwards.org

If you prefer, you may call the Rectory at: 516-921-8030

Once your information has been received you will be contacted by John O'Connor, Bereavement Facilitator for The Diocese of Rockville Centre, who will confirm your registration and will provide you with additional information about the Group.

St. Edward's Women's Guild

Please join us the weekends of December 9th & 16th for the St. Edward's Women's Guild first fundraiser. We will be having a combined Christmas Ornament and Cake Sale. Everything will be on display in the Welcome Area of the church. This fundraiser goes a long way in allowing us to continue our charitable works, that we engaged in as the Columbiettes. We are still the same group of dedicated Catholic Women trying to make a difference in people's lives.

Catholic Ministries Appeal

We are just 14% away from hitting our CMA annual goal which will entitle St. Edward's to a rebate of over $20,000.00.

If you have already sent in your pledge we are very grateful for your generosity. If you have not done so, please consider making a pledge. You'll not only be helping the tens of thousands of people serviced by your donation but you will be helping St. Edward's as well.
