From Fr. Mike's Desk

This week we continue with John the Baptist, only this week we are looking at him through the Gospel of John. Recall John's Gospel does not start with the stable at Bethlehem, as Matthew and Luke do, or even with John the Baptist as Mark's Gospel begins. No, John begins in Heaven, and in his prologue, we read that Christ, or the Son of God, existed from the beginning (realize that beginning is not the best word to use) with the Father and the Holy Spirit. It is this preexistent Second Person of the Blessed Trinity which John calls the Word or Logos in Greek, which came down from Heaven. The Divine Logos becomes one of us in the person of Jesus, and He is the light of the Father that the darkness of evil cannot and will not overtake. The Word made Flesh is the one John was sent to give testimony to.

Once again, we see the forerunner preparing the way of the Lord, but he does make sure that no one confuses him with the Messiah. John gave the officials this answer when they asked if he was the Messiah. No, I am not. He continued with, "I baptize with water, but there is one among you whom you do not recognize, the one who is coming after me whose sandal strap I am unworthy to untie." John wants no mistake about who he is and who it is that comes after him.

John's preaching was not just for the people of 2,024 years ago, it is for us as well. As we saw last week, we are like wise to prepare the way of the Lord and knock down any barriers that prevent others or us from coming closer to Christ. We too must listen to John, but unlike those of 2,024 years ago, we are to join John in testifying to the Light. But how do we do this? We can do this when we realize that the Spirit of the Lord is upon us and He has anointed us to heal the brokenhearted and bring glad tidings to the poor. With the Holy Spirit's power, we can achieve anything! Keep in mind that when we are doing this, we should not get in the way of the Holy Spirit. Follow Paul's advice in his Letter to the Thessalonians, to give thanks to God for having given us life, through Christ and saving us from the darkness.

Here are some of the happenings during Advent. on Sunday, December 17th at 3:00 PM, there will be our annual Mass for Deceased Children. On Wednesday, December 19th from 2:00 to 3:00 PM and from 7:00 to 9:00 PM will be Advent Confessions in preparation for Christmas. Our Christmas Eve and Day Schedule goes as follows: Sunday, December 24th the Fourth Sunday of Advent we will have our usual Saturday Night/Sunday Morning Masses. Namely, Saturday, at 5:00 PM, Sunday Morning at 7:30 AM, 9:30 AM, and 11:30 AM. As we move into the day the Masses will be for Christmas Eve and Day, Sunday, December 24th - Christmas Eve: 4:00 PM Mass with the Children's Choir in the Church, likewise we will have 4:00 PM Mass in the Gym, and 6:00 PM Mass, 8:00 PM Mass, and 12:00 Midnight all in the Church. On Monday, Christmas Day our Mass Schedule will be 7:30 AM, 9:30 AM, 11:30 AM and the final Mass being 1:00 PM, all in the Church. There will be no Evening Mass on Christmas Day.

As you know, the Christmas Collection is one of the most important collections here in our beautiful parish. Through this collection and your extreme generosity, we can pay many of the bills that we incur during the year. In the past, you have been exceedingly kind to our dear parish, and I thank you from the bottom of my heart. This year we are especially in need, and we cannot keep ourselves going without your help. Thank you for your generous heart and helping us.

Happy Advent!

Fr. Mike

Next Week's Readings

Fourth Sunday of Advent

December 24, 2023

First Reading - 2 Samuel 7:1-5, 8b-12, 14a, 16

Psalms - 89:2-3, 4-5, 27, 29

Second Reading - Romans 16:25-27

Gospel - Luke 1:26-38

Next Week's Gospel Question

Listening to Luke's Gospel we hear how the angel Gabriel is sent to Mary with word that she will conceive and bear the Son of the Most High. Hearing this, she is astonished and in disbelief as to how this will come to be. Gabriel provides reassurance stating that "nothing will be impossible for God". Hearing these words, Mary, with her obedience to faith, gives her ready assent and places her trust in God's plan for her life.

Just as Mary demonstrated her obedience to faith by willingly following God's plan for her life, does your faith allow you to trust and follow God's plan for your life?

The Advent season is a time of preparation that directs our hearts and minds to Christ's second coming at the end of time and to the anniversary of Our Lord's birth on Christmas. From the earliest days of the Church, people have been fascinated by Jesus' promise to come back. But the scripture readings during Advent tell us not to waste our time with predictions. Advent is not about speculation. Our Advent readings call us to be alert and ready, not weighted down and distracted by the cares of this world (Lk 21:34-36). Like Lent, the liturgical color for Advent is purple since both are seasons that prepare us for great feast days. Advent also includes an element of penance in the sense of preparing, quieting, and disciplining our hearts for the full joy of Christmas.

As you prepare your home for a joyous Christmas with family and friends, allow yourself time to prepare your heart for Christ the Lord. Join fellow parishioners in prayer, liturgy, meditation, reconciliation, scripture and music.

Mass for Deceased Children

Sunday, December 17th at 3:00 PM, there will be a Celebration in memory of our deceased children.

If you know of someone who has lost a child, or you choose to attend Mass, your presence is welcomed and appreciated.

If you are aware of someone who has lost a child and would like to invite them, please feel free to extend an invitation.

If you have questions, please call Deacon Jim at 516 322-0373.

Upcoming Bereavement Support Group

The death of a loved one can be the most profound emotional experience we will ever endure. The grief which follows can be painful and challenging. The St. Edward's Bereavement Support Group provides an opportunity to be listened to, understood, nurtured and loved, and will give you methods and tools to help guide you through the grieving process. A new Group for those bereaved 6 months or longer is now being formed. The Group will meet once per week for two hours, for eight weeks beginning on Thursday, January 11th at 7:00 PM.

Begins on 1/11/24
Ends on 3/7/24

Registration is required. Please register early as the Group will be limited in size. The registration deadline is: Monday, 1/8/24.

To register, please send an email with your name and telephone number to:

Bereavement@st-edwards.org

If you prefer, you may call the Rectory at: 516-921-8030

Once your information has been received you will be contacted by John O'Connor, Bereavement Minister for The Diocese of Rockville Centre, who will confirm your registration and will provide you with additional information about the Group.

Sacraments of Initiation for Adults

GOOD NEWS!

Last Sunday our parish had the great joy of welcoming 3 adults into the Initiation process at the 11:30 AM Mass. This Initiation process is called the RITE of ACCEPTANCE. Lance Salm, a catechumen, will be baptized and receive Communion and Confirmation at the Easter Vigil. Samantha Bellando and Kelly Melius DiPreta will complete their sacraments.

At Christmastime people often realize that something is missing in their lives - a place to meet God. Do you know someone who is looking for a home? Perhaps it's the St. Edward's RCIA program?

St. Edward's Women's Guild

Please join us this weekend, December 16th & 17th for the St. Edward's Women's Guild first fundraiser. We will be having a combined Christmas Ornament and Cake Sale. Everything will be on display in the Welcome Area of the church. This fundraiser goes a long way in allowing us to continue our charitable works, that we engaged in as the Columbiettes. We are still the same group of dedicated Catholic Women trying to make a difference in people's lives.

Catholic Ministries Appeal

We are still 14% away from hitting our CMA annual goal which will entitle St. Edward's to a rebate of over $20,000.00.

If you have already sent in your pledge we are very grateful for your generosity. If you have not done so, please consider making a pledge. You'll not only be helping the tens of thousands of people serviced by your donation but you will be helping St. Edward's as well.
