From Fr. Mike's Desk

This week's Gospel Reading starts from where we left off last week, as it tells us that Jesus coming out of the synagogue, where He drove the unclean spirit out of the man, entered the house of Simon. When He arrived, He was informed that Simon's mother-in-law was sick with a fever. He went immediately to her, took her by the hand, and helped her up. The fever left her, and she began to wait on them. While we are not sure of the seriousness of the fever, it could have been a matter of life or death. So, there is more to this healing miracle than meets the eye. Jesus does more than cure her; He raises her up, which in part foreshadows the Resurrection, but this is also a sign of restoring her to a full life. Simon's mother-in-law is now given the ability to be reinstated as a participating member of the community of Israel, and now she can once again give full praise to God by offering her service, especially to the one whom God sent. Therefore, she begins to wait on Jesus and the disciples. She is so grateful, but she is also fulfilling the call of every child of God, which is to give service to one another. This should make perfect sense to us because we know when we are ill or something is troubling us, we are not ourselves and we cannot function. This is because we do not have the energy, or we cannot focus our thoughts on what we need to accomplish for God or the common good.

In every healing miracle, there is always more than meets the eye. Each one points us to the restoration of a whole life and are signs of the new life of the Resurrection. That is why Mark informs us that Jesus cured many who were sick that night and continued to expel more demons (not allowing them to speak). Mark tells us that early the next morning, before dawn, Jesus went off to pray and when the disciples found Him, they implored Him to return to town for everyone was looking for Him. The people of the town did not want Jesus to leave, who would? So, Jesus does not want to go backward, and so He tells the disciples that they must move on to other towns, so more people can hear the Good News, and so He and the disciples move on.

Saint Paul in his First Letter to the Corinthians, tells us that we must be like him and the disciples when it comes to us preaching the Gospel. In short, Paul is telling us we should try to do it with joy and not look for recompense. We receive joy in knowing that we are doing what we are supposed to do. Paul does acknowledge that at times it is hard, however, he does not stop preaching because when he does it is an act of stewardship.

God bless you always and thank you for all you do for our beautiful parish!

Fr. Mike

As many of you know, Fr. Celestine Nwosu has been reassigned to St. Agnes Cathedral in Rockville Centre. We are thankful for all the time he devoted to St. Edward's, and wish him all the best in his new position. We also wish to welcome our newly assigned priest, Fr. Jude Mensah. Fr. Jude was ordained in 2015, and was assigned to the Diocese of Rockville Centre in 2023. Let us welcome him into our parish with open arms.

Next Week's Readings

Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

February 11, 2024

First Reading - Leviticus 13:1-2, 44-46

Psalms - 32:1-2, 5, 11

Second Reading - 1 Corinthians 10:31-11:1

Gospel - Mark 1:40-45

Next Week's Gospel Question

In Mark's Gospel we hear of a leper who went to Jesus, knelt down and begged saying "If you wish, you can make me clean." Moved by pity, Jesus touched him and said "I do will it. Be made clean."

What did the leper possess, and what did Jesus see in the leper, that made Him feel such pity that He would grant the leper's request?

SEC Youth Ministry Corner

~FAITH ~ HOPE ~ LOVE~

This new SEC Youth Ministry Corner will be a weekly addition to our bulletin, and is envisioned as a place where youth, and their parents, can find information about current and upcoming meetings, events and invitations, and reminders of what the Youth Ministry offers.

Come, join us, and share your God given talents with others!

There are two scheduled meetings for February:

- ◆ Sunday, February 4, 2024 following the 6:00 PM Mass
- ◆ Sunday, February 25, 2024 following the 6:00 PM Mass

Youth in grades 6-12 are invited to share their time, gifts & talents as part of the SEC Youth Ministry. Please join us at the 6:00 PM Sunday Mass to greet, sing, lecture, collect the offering, bring up the gifts and altar serve. Community Service Credits are earned for participation.

Also, if you are a parent, guardian or just an adult looking to volunteer or get involved, please come to the next YOUTH COUNCIL COMMITTEE meeting on February 12, at 7:00 PM in the Youth Office in the school. Meet the people who are spending time with your children, and see how we plan their meetings.

Are You an Independent Senior Seeking a Life-giving Environment

HARVEST HOUSE

Residents give a happy look at our collection of unique "Santas" (25) gifts given to Harvest House over these 40 years
It is time to put away our "special Santas" as we joyfully begin a new year:

2024 at HARVEST HOUSE

Some time ago Chris, a relation of our resident shared the following with us:
"In her later life, we watched our Aunt Minnie's spirit rapidly decline. Then We found HARVEST HOUSE! In a very short time, we saw her spirit spiraling Upward to the Aunt Minnie we always knew and loved.:

Forty years ago we, with the Sisters of St. Dominic, recognized that the experience of aging in our society at that time was negative.
Something new was needed! HARVEST HOUSE was created!

- Where each individual would be encouraged to live life to the fullest
- Where independent seniors would live in a setting that is nurturing and life-giving
- Where the gift of laughter keeps all young at heart

DO YOU KNOW AN INDEPENDENT SENIOR WHO WOULD BENEFIT AND ENJOY LIVING IN SUCH A LIFE-GIVING ENVIRONMENT?
