■ THE VILLAS AT FIVE PONDS EXECUTIVE BOARD

SMOKE DETECTOR & BATTERY INFORMATION

THE VILLAS AT FIVE PONDS Board working in conjunction with the Warminster Township Manager would like to remind all of the following:

- For those homes whose ceiling smoke detectors do not have the battery back up on the wall of the garage, they should:
 - Change the 9 volt batteries inside of them at least every other year before they begin to “chirp”.
 - Have a professional alarm company check them to determine if the detectors themselves have reached the “end of useful life” if they have, they should be replaced.
- For those who have thermostats that are not electrically hard wired but are operated by a battery, they should be changed at least once a year. A battery operated thermostat with a dead battery will not provide a signal for your heater or air conditioner to operate. Not a good thing.

SNOW PARKING

During the recent snow events, there were up to 7 vehicles in violation of our rule that reads “parking vehicles on street or in driveways and/or turnaround area is not permitted during a snowstorm. Violations of this rule will result in an immediate $ 100 fine”.

All vehicles that cannot be garaged should be moved onto the clubhouse lot, middle rows and row near indoor pool only. The back row closest to Clubhouse Lane & the row that is to the left perpendicular to front door are off limits during and just after a snow event.

Why is this rule in place? Because the vendor does not want to hit a vehicle and thus be responsible to repairing it. This slows the plowing down. Approximating 20 minutes per vehicle* parked in an inappropriate place during a snow storm. So, 7 vehicles would elongate our communities’ snow removal process 2 1/3 hours..... not a good thing.

 Years ago this was timed through observation and a stop watch. A quad with a 1 vehicle left on a driveway versus a quad without a vehicle on a driveway, took 20 minutes longer to clear, plus the quad isn't cleared properly, creating a neighbor issue.*

SNOW STICKS & SNOW REMOVAL DAMAGES

The vendor is NOT responsible for any damage to a resident placed snow stick... .the vendor IS responsible for repair of any turf damage caused during snow removal. (The repair) will usually to be done in the spring, and of course any other property damage, other than, walk way lights.

All property damage and turf damage that occurred during snow removal should be reported in writing promptly, with a picture, if possible, to our property manager Amy Wert...not a member of the Board, alone.

VILLAS AT FIVE PONDS WEB SITE

There is a problem with the Villas at Five Ponds web site. Ron Dorfman, our volunteer overseer of it, is aware of the issue and will be working getting it updated soon.

If you would like a copy of October, November or December Board meeting minutes please e-mail a request to Joel with your name & mailing address for verification and he will e-mail them to you.

THE EAGLES IMPLOSION AND WHAT'S NEXT

■ JAKE SAMSON, THE VILLA'S VOICE GUEST SPORTS REPORTER

MAN, HOW QUICKLY THINGS CHANGE. At 10-1, it looked like the Philadelphia Eagles were the team to beat in the NFC. Then, it came crashing down. The Eagles were eliminated in the first round of the playoffs by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in rather embarrassing fashion, which leaves us fans wondering: What Happened?

The first thing I noticed was Jalen Hurts' mobility. For such an athlete to lose that speed that he had just a year ago, makes me think he was playing through an injury. He had no burst from November-on, which makes me think he was trying to tough it out while hurt. I respect his willingness to grind it out, but it undoubtedly hurt his team in the process. The next thing I noticed was the poor tackling, with players thinking they could get away with 70-80% effort on the defensive side of the ball. Maybe they could do that against weaker opponents, but when they hit the gauntlet of their schedule, it proved that they couldn't. Finally, I saw a team that seemingly gave up with poor body language. From AJ Brown to Dallas Goedert to others on the sidelines, I saw a team that did not have anything close to the chemistry that they had back in 2017 or 2022.

So, now what? Things are extremely up in the air as I write this article but here's what we know, so far. It seems like Nick Sirianni is going to keep his job, but different offensive and defensive coordinators will be in place for the 2024 season. The offensive core should hang around, with just Jason Kelce and Lane Johnson as the big question marks. The defense was a huge problem, and wouldn't be surprised if many of the starters from this past year are on a different team come September (or in the case of Fletcher Cox and Brandon Graham, retired).

The Eagles were floating in this weird young team but keep some of the Super Bowl pieces here era. To their defense, those players in Kelce, Cox, Graham, Johnson, Jake Elliot were their best players in the 2023 campaign. However, their lack of embracing at least a little more of a rebuild probably hurt them and we saw it in this past season. Other than Hurts, Devonta Smith, Jalen Carter and debatably Jordan Davis, they don't have a ton of young certain talent. The sky isn't falling, they are still an above average team in the NFC where a lot of teams are very very bad. However, there are some major changes that need to be made to make sure the 2023 campaign isn't a sign of things to come.

THE HOLDOVERS

■ RON DORFMAN

PAUL GIAMATTI (Golden Globe Best 2024 Male Actor winner) is featured as a private school teacher who no one really cares about. He is being punished by his head master with the assignment to oversee five "holdover" students during the 1970 two-week winter holiday break. These kids are troubled in various ways (divorced parents, lack of family interest in their returning home, foreign students with too far to travel.)

The professor and his charges are also cared for by a grieving resident cook, played wonderfully by Mount Airy native, Da'Vine Joy Randolph (Golden Globe Best 2024 Female Actor winner, and nominee for 2024 Academy Award as Best Actress in a Supporting role.) The film is also up for Best Picture 2024 in the Academy Awards.

This is a touching family film with humor, compassion, and warmth throughout. It's a recommended winner in every way.

Available free on NBC's Peacock network (part of most Xfinity plans.)

JULES: STILL IN PA, BUT OUT OF THIS WORLD

■ RON DORFMAN

YEAH, I KNOW you don't go for out of this world aliens and strange, unbelievable occurrences. Well, as a good friend of mine who is a respected TV critic and writer says, "You must suspend your disbelief and just enjoy the show."

Taking place in a familiar western Pennsylvania town, and starring a well seasoned, talented cast including Ben Kingsly and SNL's hysterical Jane Curtin (who had vast extra-celestial experience with Third Rock from the Sun). Get ready for a goodtime, and a real family film.

A reviewer writes: "Jules" utilizes the alien encounter not to explore the possibilities of extraterrestrial life but to paint a portrait of life on Earth. It's a simple tale, simply told, but with a lot of heart and humanity at the center of it all."

"...an absolute gem of a film that left me captivated from start to finish. This cinematic masterpiece effortlessly blends simplicity and depth, offering a truly unique and unforgettable experience. The movie's ability to seamlessly transition between moments of humor and sadness is a testament to its brilliant storytelling."

If you liked and appreciated ET as a kid, you'll certainly appreciate this updated version for us "older folks."

SOCIAL COMMITTEE NEWS

■ AILEEN SALUS, CHAIR

IT APPEARS THAT WINTER HAS ARRIVED with a vengeance. However, all of our clubs are hard at work planning activities for the next few months. I encourage you to support them by planning to attend.

On March 8, plan on attending an evening of music and impressions by Eric Kearns. Suzanne Yeager and Kathy Lunde, co-chairs of the Programs committee have arranged for a wonderful evening of entertainment.

March 15 is Movie Night. The movie is What's up Doc? Sue Gordon and Anne Leskowitz always plan a fun evening that includes appropriate movie snacks.

On Monday evening, March 18 the Mens Club has arranged for Rabbi Jason Bonder from Congregation Beth Or to speak about the current situation between Israel and Palestine. Please contact Howard Rabinovitch or Steve Warshaw for more information.

March 20, join Reba Grossman on the bus to Wind Creek Casino in Bethlehem. Try your luck in the casino; have lunch; and do some shopping. It's a full day on your own. You only need to pay for the bus in advance. Contact Reba or Barbara Kains for more information.

Before we know it, it will be Spring and looking forward to that, on Saturday night, April 13, don't miss the Spring Fling. Karen Schwartz and Leenie Rogovitz are planning a fabulous evening that includes a 4-course dinner, musical entertainment and the chance to win terrific prizes.

Lots of terrific events coming up. Your neighbors are working very hard to plan events that are entertaining and informative. Please show your appreciation for their hard work by attending.

E-MAIL BLASTS FROM VFP

IT HAS COME TO THE ATTENTION OF THE BOARD, that some residents with "Comcast.net" e-mail addresses were not receiving our community blasts from Continental Management.

Since becoming aware of the problem and we are trying different work arounds and are working with Continental and Comcast as well.

One workaround might make you see a community E-blast from Beth Michaud instead of Continental. This is an employee of Continental.

The way to identify a legitimate Villas At Five Ponds community blast is in the subject line after the subject you will find a number and the year. Thank you for your understanding.
