01.I am a rolling stone

In the friction of time
I am a rolling stone
Time has made me plain
The friction removed all stain
Sometimes on hilly spring
Sometimes on the river bed
Time flow above me
The truck carries to sunny road
Bearing severe pressure and pain
I wait for good days and rain
But my hope goes in vane
Only sorrow and tears I gain
In the long run my surface become smooth
The morning rays reflect rainbow
The butterfly rests on my surface
The child said “wow what a beautiful stone!”

02.Pressure made me diamond

The pressure of pain made me strong
I survived millions of years long
Though I was carbon abandoned
Time changed me to become diamond;
Persistence and perseverance make you bold
A brave new world everyday unfold
New history is made which was untold
At premium your innovation will be sold;
Whenever you fall down in the journey
Immediately stand up and start the tourney
While fetching honey the bee may bite
But for the best taste you must fight;
The pleasure and pain two sides of the coin
You will be successful if both side you can join
Difficulties and hurdles are only dotted line
Attitude and hard work make everything fine.

03.Howdy Modi

Howdy Modi, Howdy Modi
Chidambaram is rowdy
Modi and Trump together
Indo-American friendship forever
Fusion of Indian culture with America
It glows like Jesus's cloth veronica
Modi haters face once again blackened
Whole opposition is now drunken;
Howdy Modi, Howdy Modi
Imran and Pakistan is now rowdy
Article three seventy abrogated
India can never be segregated
Houston address will be always remembered
In Modi era India is moving fast towards development
Howdy Modi will bring lot of improvement
One day no Indian will remain insolvent.

04.Free meal

In the world no free meal
But your money can be steal
People will come with fake deal
Every moment they will try to kill
No one will come forward to heal
In the sea will sink your zeal
Forever your future will seal
Your bank balance will be nil
You will be unable to pay bill
No money even to buy pill
Never run after free money and meal
Work hard with determination and will.

05. Better remain shy

Never hurt anybody's soul
You will score only self-goal
Harsh words are like boomerang
Never allow it to come to tongue
Word once told can't be taken back
In future it may again reflect and rack
Word is omnipotent never it die
Always speak the truth not a lie
Your foul word may force a friend to cry
When angry better to remain shy.

06. Cry for a while

When heart is full of sorrow
Rain is needed for better tomorrow
Crying is not always a bad thing
Lot of relief to mind it can bring
The tears will wash away pain
Clear will be your choked drain
Smile will come back to your face again
For the heart crying is like rain
Don't allow negative emotions to pile
Bring rainbow to life crying for a while.

07. Hiking

Hiking is always better than biking
Satisfactory is also bicycle riding;
Walking on country side is good
It can enlighten and refresh mood;
When you walk through hilly tracks
The negativity of the mind brakes;
Going on foot through dense forest
Cautious mind always stay abreast;
Hiking never pollute water and air
Walking with friends is pleasure and fair.

08.I can move alone

When no one comes to wipe my tears
I throw away my all the fears
In this world for me no one cares
So with the bottle I shout cheers;
My tears dry with the breeze
I take out ice from my freeze
Friends come to give accompany
Together they make only cacophony;
In the world we born alone with a cry
For surviving alone we must try
During rosy days everyone will say hello hi
In trouble time near and dear one also say bye;
I am used to walk alone in the madding crowd
This attitude allows me to move forward
Loneliness taught me not to become coward
Journey with others are lifetime award.

09.Better tomorrow

Every evening I hope for a better tomorrow
Always forget today's pain and sorrow
With the morning comes two sparrow
Happy that from the sun no need to borrow;
Today is a beautiful day with sunshine
For seeing two sparrow the day will be fine
To achieve higher, I forget to rest and dine
I can't waste to day because it is mine;
The silvery moonlight brings the reward
Even in the darkest night I move forward
I know tomorrow will come again with hope
So the darkness of night I can easily cope.

10.All wives are same

Why all wives are same
Husband always to blame
Greed for name and fame
Scold husband if he became lame
Hide and seek is regular game
Neither can be easily tame
Each will say other shame, shame
But fight together for family name
All wives of world are same.

11.War is not solution

Time is relative
So it is sensitive
Fifteen become heavier
Forty is lighter
Peace is always brighter
Buddha was never hostile
Because love is very fragile
War is never a solution
Ashoka took peace resolution
Nuclear weapon should go hibernation
Let world work for terrorism dilution.

12.Love

You don't know when you may fall in love
You may get attracted to any curl and curve
No barrier of language, religion can stop
Caste, creed, colour, power all it can mop
Love is the binding force of male and female
In the modern society now love is for open sale
Yet love is viral and anyone can cheer and hail.

13.Enjoy your money

In the mad run for money
We come across leaving honey
Life is not a destination but journey
Every day is a beautiful tourney
So also the journey is funny;
When we run for money hunt
Our vision become very blunt
Time moves fast with money accumulation
When we realise the truth no solution
Poor health forced just face humiliation;
Honeymoon never lasts too long
Though your wealth may grow strong
So stop at every beautiful station
Eat honey with friends with satisfaction
Enjoying money than accumulation is better solution.

14. Why world is round?

God made this world round
So that we can hear his sound
Sunshine everybody can found
Air and water flow around
To him we are duty bound;
The world has no length and breadth
But every moment we have to breathe
The life in the world is complex math
Only few can gather money and wealth
The best can survive long with health.

15. Man animal conflict

With felling of plant and trees
Man animal conflict increase
The oxygen in air decrease;
Man destroyed trees and forests
They never think about animals interests
Thus converted many places to deserts;
Animals are not responsible for climate change
They always remain within natural range
Conflict with animal, man always arrange;
Man has expedite global warming
So ice of glaciers are quickly melting
Environment and ecology man only destroying.

16.The beautiful poem

The world is a beautiful poem
Sun is its controlling doyen;
Nothing in nature looks bad
Telling someone ugly is sad;
The river, hill, ocean all are poetry
Beautiful women are its Notary
For a better world poetry is votary
Poems are part of life without boundary;
The sky, moon, rain and the forest
For poetry all are always dearest;
The existence of poetry depends on world
Without nature poems will remain untold.

17.Clock is not time

The clock is not measure of time
Without clock also time run fine
My watch may be dead at night
But the sun rises at five AM right
Clock can't make my time bright
To make time right I have to fight
Time will give zeros if we take it light
Wasting time will make life full of plight
Life will become endless night.

18.Tik tok

Tik tok tik tok
Life is full of flip flop
Up down up down
Silence and sound
Day and night comes
Round and round
Happiness and misery
Everywhere to found
Rise and fall come and go
Sometimes fast sometimes slow
Kiss and miss part of life
Joy and sorrow together strive
Tik tok tick talk
Your dance upload and unlock.

19.Think logically

Why sacrifice animal for God
For this act he will not give nod
Don't hit the helpless with iron rod
Animals are beautiful tiny tod;
God is omnipotent and merciful
All over the universes he rule
Pleasing him by blood wrong tool
Human is making itself a fool
Think with logic when brain is cool.

20. Be like quark

O' thy young Turk
On earth leave your mark
Be strong like shark
Ignite life with a spark
Overcome the dark
Give yourself a jerk
Make world beautiful park
Be like quark
No need to bark.

21. O' my sweetheart darling

O' my sweetheart darling
You are my Pound Sterling
Don't do bouncer balling
In fear my heart is falling
Please stop today's scolding;
Without you life is vacuum
You are my companion premium
In my life you are like platinum
Sing a song with your harmonium
Don't force me to take opium.

22. I am defeated by destiny

Destiny forced me to kneel down
Once I had on my head golden crown
I was declared as a great hero
But in the final battle I became zero
My power, kingdom everything vanished
To solitary confinement I was banished
Power, money, might, glory all temporary
Only my shadow was my contemporary
Alexander, Napoleon, Hitler ends tragically
They are also the governed by destiny basically.

23.I want a new world

A world without country
A world without boundary
A world without religion
A world without pollution
A world without constitution
A world without subversion
A world without restriction
A world without frustration
O' Lord give us a new world
A new civilization we want to unfold.

24.I love my country

When I love my country
I can love the world
Human values automatically unfold;
Patriotism is not for sale
It is not to show and tell
Conduct will ring the bell;
He who don't love motherland
He can't help mankind
Such people are born blind;
Charity begins at home
Google has given us chrome
For humanity no need of bomb;
Love your family, love your neighbour
Your country you will love forever
One day you will be humanity's savour.

25.Die with friendship

Whatever big palace you built
One day in the history it will tilt
Your stay in the palace is limited
To remove you, time is committed
To the graveyard you will be submitted;
Better sleep is important than palace
You may end up in hospital cold storage
Your palace may go to reverse mortgage
Better invest in health and relationship
Dine, wine, travel, dance and die with friendship.

26.Gandhi

He was a votary of peace
To India nonviolence teach
Cleanliness his beach
Love all he always preach
In world immortality he reach;
Gandhi was Buddha's true disciple
His life was honest and simple
India's independence was his mission
To wage war he never gave permission
Peace and nonviolence his submission;
He believed in religious tolerance
Division in the name of God nonsense
But flailed to induce people's common sense
India got Hindu-Muslim communal division
He was killed for a cause which was not his decision.

27.Past, present and future

Future is resultant of past and present
Without present future is absent
Past can give only expert comment
In work of present future is latent
For better future present work important;
Summation of past and present is life
Future is only hope to become delight
Dream for future make present right
Build your present, past and future will be bright.

28.I like simple people

I like people who are simple
Of course, female with dimple
Simple people are honest people
In friendship they don't dribble
Their mindset is also not fickle;
Simple living gives them good health
High thinking is their real wealth
Beauty of world they can unfold
A better new world they try to mould
Dignity and integrity, they always hold.

29.O God, lift your veil

When monkey lost its tail
It pushed all animals to jail
God's mercy to animals fail
Yet God didn't send a mail
Nor send a letter through rail
So to God, animals never hail
Many species lost their trail
God's own creation about to derail
The world man alone can't sail
Time is ripe for God to lift his veil.

30.Alcohol

One peg good, two change mood
Three is food, four can be rude;
What a wonderful liquid alcohol
Everyday many people lost control;
Many lost their hard earned money
But they can't live without red honey;
Alcohol can make the wise funny
One can become bankrupt without penny;
For the weak minded alcohol is elixir
With hundreds brand they are familiar;
Alcohol has devotes more than religion
Whisky, brandy, wine make own opinion;
To resolve problems alcohol is not solution
Yet during trouble it is man's best companion.

31.Move on move on

Living in a dynamic universe
Don't try to become static
Momentum make life fantastic
Static things become rustic
He who moves on are iconic;
Money, youth, beauty all temporary
Forever you will not remain honorary
You are not a permanent functionary
Time may block your artery coronary
Better move on drinking Bloody-marry;
The earth never stopped its rotation
To move around sun is its destination
Momentum is its natural inclination
So to move on never show hesitation.

32.Sankardev

He was poet, philosopher and reformer
Ahead of time he was a dreamer
He introduced a caste less society
Classes less world was his polity
Thought of socialism before Marxism
His philosophy was universal humanism
Preach for wellbeing of dog, fox and donkey
Ask his followers to treat every creature carefully
His dream was a beautiful world with peace and equity
Whole life worked to develop society with positive mentality
Sankardev was a prophet par excellence
Let the world now learn from him tolerance.

33.I blame none for failure

I blame none for my failure
I have done mistakes is sure;
I got opportunity to choose
But due to idleness I lose;
Nobody forced me my path
Always I thought I am right;
Best suggestion I have ignored
My ego I never allowed to lowered;
I thought I choose the best option
Never tried for change and rotation;
Now when I become lame duck
Why should I blame others for the stuck;
I have to change my destiny of my own
No one will give his success to me on loan.

34.Life is a matter of choice

Life is full of infinite opportunities
Thousands of cheerful communities
Yet there is no security of life
But choices are plenty and bright
So be sensible and choose right;
Choose wrong, whole life have to fight
Wind may blow away your flying kite
Any moment darkness will chase light
You may not face challenges with might
Every moment your going may be tight;
Fly the available best flight
Rise to the maximum height
Above cloud fly in the night
Will overcome all your plight
Life will be beautiful and quiet.

35.Never tell a lie

No one wants to die
Yet one day has to fly
Someone will cry
Someone will say bye
Someone will remain shy
But everyone will die;
Don't make life dry
To make it better try
Be a bold and smart guy
Never tell a lie
Smile and say everyone hi.

36.Continue your journey

Don't calculate pain and gain
Umbrella is there for rain
Calculation will push you to drain
Make smile your companion main
Life is always a combination chain;
To pick nectar of life move smiling
Forgetting death rise after falling
Journey may not be smooth sailing
In the race of life you may be trailing
In the long run your smile will be shining;
When life cry every moment for a penny
To move forward you will see options many
Look at others, life is really very funny
One day the bold and beautiful will be nanny
So no need to calculate, continue your journey

37.Life is a beautiful event

The life is a beautiful event
Summation of many component
But life is never permanent
So don't forget today's enjoyment
With good jobs add to it supplement;
Life always has an inherent reason
It changes like the four season
Don't make beautiful life a prison
Your life is not for comparison
You have own rainbow and distinction;
Make life memorable one
Like season it will be gone
Fill every moment with fun
For small bump no heart burn
Tomorrow again you can run.

devajitbhuyan@gmail.com

38. Knowing is not enough

Count your chicken before it hatch
Otherwise total will never match;
Failure is the pillar of success is true
Provided from failure you take a clue;
The journey will start with a single step
But fill your fuel tank before you leap;
Practice leads to perfection you know
One day performance you must show;
Slow and steady wins the race
Provided no competitor is in haste;
Knowing a thing is not the actual fact
To achieve it with persistence you must act.

39. The world is on reverse gear

The world is now on reverse gear
Environmental degradation is clear
Biodiversity is no more our dear
For deduction no one now fear
People only shed crocodile tear
Devastation is approaching near
Sound of melting pole we can hear
Species of animals extinct every year
One day we will face tragedy like King Lear.

40. Namghar (Assamese prayer house)

Not like Church, Mosque or temple
Namghar is an unique example
Combination of art, culture and spirituality
Shankardev established it scientifically
Namghar integrates people socially;
The seniors get respect on first row
To love and care children all devotes know
The unwritten conduct every one follow
The rhythm of prayer together flow
Let world see it's spirit and say wow.

41.Namghosa (নামঘোষা)

The gem of spiritual literature
The teaching of Namghosa is forever
It's philosophy is the tallest tower
Sing it's hymn in everyday prayer
Such a religious text in world is rare;
Namghosa teaches universal brotherhood
Work with denunciation for mankind's good
Even to the weakest one never become rude
Pray the sage who even don't desire salvation
Working with prayer for better world is best satisfaction.

42.Shankardev the unifier

When Assam's society was divided
Unification path Shankardev provided
All caste, creeds he tactfully united
Assamese identity to world enlightened;
Shankardev was not merely a spiritual guru
He laid foundation for Assam's better tomorrow
The best teachings of all religions he borrow
So his thinking and philosophy is not narrow;
God is omnipotent and expression less
Rituals and animal sacrifice to get him is useless
Purity of mind and soul can only bless
Through brotherhood and love society can progress.

43.Never stop momentum

The sun never rises or sets
Earth only moves on it's axis
We say Sunset on relative basis;
When sun sets in one place of earth
In some other places for light no dearth
The rotation of earth continues on it's path;
Never stop your momentum when it is dark
Otherwise you will lost your destination park
Time will give you untimely dead mark.

44.Logic and wisdom

A bird in hand is better than two in bushes
To catch them never make rushes;
The distant hill is always look beautiful
Going near you can see bump plentiful;
Never neglect near one for distant glamour
When you reached, will know all are rumour ;
If you can catch fish sitting on the sea shore
No need to go to the hostile mid sea any more;
Courage and confidence does mean blind move
Better success logic and wisdom will prove.

(21)

45. Don't sacrifice the innocent for God

Why sacrifice innocent animal
Why halal desert friend camel
Dog, fox, donkeys soul is also God
Sacrificing them for God is a fraud
To kill them God has not given his nod;
Sankardev taught futility of sacrifice
His salvation philosophy is precise
Pray God with clean and open mind
In animals also omnipotent you will find
So to the nature and earth always be kind;
The rituals are creation of vested people
With prayer, meditation live a life simple
God doesn't have a shape or bodily existence
He is infinite, shapeless and only to feel his omnipotence
For a better world, against sacrifice always give resistance.

46. Trust

Trust is very rare
So to trust be fair
It is also very fragile
Quickly become hostile
Trust is always volatile
Never static but mobile
To develop need year
Disappear in small fear
Be trustworthy for all
From top you will not fall
When people trust you
They will accept your view.

devajitbhuyan@gmail.com

47.Loneliness

No one in this world alone
We are made of same clone
Loneliness is state of mind
Companion is easy to find
When we love the near and dear
As companion they will cheer
Selfishness always generates fear
In loneliness you have to shed tear
When you throw ego and greed
To your call everyone one will heed
Sing a song with birds under a tree
From loneliness you are always free.

48.Tentative existence

Nobody knows how long he will live
So share with others when you are alive
Enjoy others smiling face when you give
People's small mistake always forgive
In this world nobody is permanent native;
Eat, drink and enjoy as much as you can
But be generous to others like a good man
Unused resources you can't take to grave
Everything you gather you have to leave
Your existence in this world is tentative.

(23)

49.Only mystery

The existence of universe is the only mystery
Everything else are only corollary;
The universe may be static or dynamic
But its existence is the actual comic ;
The constituents may be subatomic
But the size of planets and stars gigantic;
Who created, why and how is the question
No one can give an answer to our satisfaction;
The infinite boundary less ever expanding universe
But for a moment only all living things survive.

50.Save sea from pollution

In human life cycle sea is equally important
The world is unique creation of omnipotent
Sea alone is bigger than all the continent
Living thing started at sea is also pertinent
To save sea from pollution is commitment
The vastness of sea inspires to think beyond
So once upon a time America was found
People realized long back world is round.

51.When heart beats increase

When my heart beat increases in fear
I know to help me God will be very near
To his children he is always kind and dear
With his presence I can wipe out my tears
I can move in life's path again on top gear;
In the darkest night with you God is there
Your sorrow and pain he will try to share
His absence during bad days is rare
When you pray he will certainly take care
To come near you he never asks taxi fare.

devajitbhuyan@gmail.com

52.Listen to your heart

Always listen to your heart
In trouble time it never flirts
To understand heart is an art
It can only clean mind's dirt
Self-esteem it will not hurt;
Brain is too much logical
Gain and lose is mathematical
Anger is haste and surgical
Love is fragile and emotional
In confusion don't be political;
Heart is clear and transparent
Never think anything apparent
For the heart don't be deterrent
In darkest day heart is supplement
The path of heart is omnipotent.

53.Love is reciprocal

Love and hate both are reciprocal
They are also apparently sinusoidal
But jealousy is always colonial;
Love follow Newton's third law
If you love someone they also follow
Hate also rebound with a blow;
The world is a place of action and reaction
Life and death forever move in continuation
So live and let live is the only solution;
Good action can create only reaction good
Honesty and trust creates pleasant mood
With ease you can digest your daily food.

54.Midnight Sun

When sweet heart ask for sun in midnight
You must realize that she wants to fight
Please accept that your pent will be tight
Better go out to search for Firefly's bright
Inside you can't win even applying might;
In the morning when the sun rises
You will have to listen to her cries
She will not ask for sun in the noon
Any moment sweetheart may ask for moon
Run for office before she throws a spoon.

55.MBA

MBA degree can't make an entrepreneur
For many students it remains as souvenir;
To become a successful businessman
One needs to be a hardworking human;
Positive attitude is important than capital
To do networking one should be social;
Keep eyes and ears open with close mouth
Always be prepared to travel north to south;
Meeting people with smile order of the day
To innovative and new idea no never say;
Learn from mistakes when you move forward
Knowledge, experience, wisdom gives best reward.

56.Degree

Don't be mad for a degree
Success will give it free
Follow passion with dedication
Give importance to innovation
To a problem find easy solution
You can make own institution
When equipped with best skill
The importance of degree is nil
With new idea work with will
In three hours exam no thrill.

57.Religion

Religion is a tool for division
God has not made this provision
It was only selfish man's creation
Now mankind need it's substitution
Accepting humanity is the solution;
Religion has no scientific basis
All religion has different thesis
For religion world is now in crisis
One day religion will be nemesis
Division of people let us resist.

58.Diwali

Diwali may be festival of light
But the pollution is not right
For a clean Diwali let us fight
Sound is not for showing might
Crackers causes only plight;
Light a lamp for better tomorrow
Burning hands will bring sorrow
For own interest safety rule follow
Don't ignite rockets to move like arrow
Harming nature will make Diwali narrow.

59. Why we wakeup

We wake up in the morning for breakfast
After eleven O' clock it will not last
Breakfast is the only attraction to rise
Otherwise sleeping with blanket is nice
Dreams of night fade in the morning
In the stomach hunger starts burning
Morning is also the time for pursuing
Bread, butter, jam all are waiting
Wakeup don't miss the breakfast timing
In the office boss is ready for shouting.

60. Corruption in India

Corruption is Indian people's lifeline
Without corrupt money we can't dine
With bribe money God also shine
Between honesty and corruption no line
For the society corrupt people are fine;
We bribe God to give us instant favour
But reluctant to do necessary labour
Siphoning people's money we get honour
Nation is legacy of hypocrisy and clamour
To defy law Indian minds full of armour;
No leader can make India corruption free
Corruption in India is deep rooted tree
For us corrupt money is tastier than ghee
Struggle for a honest society is below knee
For a better India we have to bribe Thee.

61.False promise

Right-wing politicians can't eradicate corruption
For a corruption free society we need Revolution
Democracy and election is not a good solution
Corrupt people should be sent for execution
Tough law is needed with full proof implementation
For this society must unite with firm determination
Democracy is giving Indian people only lip service
For decades all politicians are giving us false promise.

62.O' Lord, Open your eyes

God is dumb, deaf and blind
But people say he is very kind
Our mistakes he never mind
So cruel man everywhere we find
Now is the time for God to unwind;
O' God open your eyes to see your creation
Seeing the world you will not get satisfaction
Listen to men's cruel and destructive international
You will be forced to speak out a new solution
Otherwise you will have to decide for mankind's destruction.
