

A SUPER POWERFUL THANK YOU

Who's the super power
In your everyday life?
Is it your husband, your partner
Your wife?

Is it your mother
With never a moan
Who looks after the kids
When you're not at home?

Is it the cleaner
Who takes care of the chores
Who does all the ironing
And cleans all your floors?

Is it the teacher
Who was patient with you
Prepared you for exams
And helped you get through?

Is it your neighbour
Who puts out the bin
Keeps an eye on the house
When you are not in?

Is it the doctor
Who looks after you
Who came to your home once
When you had the flu?

Super powers come
In all shapes and sizes
They're ordinary people
And not in disguises

They quietly get on
With the jobs that they do
Without them you'd be lost
And I would be too.
