

CIGAM

A cobweb glistening in the rain
A drug that will relieve my pain
A full moon shining on the sea
These are the things that spell magic for me.

A walk on the grass in the early dew
The very first snowdrops peeping through
An early morning cup of tea
These are the things that spell magic for me.

The moment when a baby first smiles
A pub in view after walking for miles
The first blossom on an apple tree
These are the things that spell magic for me.

A fragrant rose in the summer sun
A kiss and a hug when the day is done
Floating relaxed on a turquoise sea
These are the things that spell magic for me.

A thousand stars shining in the sky
A lover's kiss and a lover's sigh
Honey from the hive of a bee
These are the things that spell magic for me.

A rainbow shimmering in the sky above
The smile in the eyes of the one you love
The sound of children laughing with glee
These are the things that spell magic for me.

Sitting around the table with friends
Knowing you're loved when the long day ends
Spending my time writing poetry
These are the things that spell magic for me.

Hearing a loved one's voice on the phone
Knowing you have a place called home
Relaxing with my family
These are the things that spell magic for me.

When war and suffering finally cease
When everyone can live in peace
Hoping one day all the world will be free
These are the things that spell magic for me.
