

LITTER DITTY

(Teddy Bears' Picnic)

If you go down to the park today, you're in for a big surprise
If you go out with your kids today, you'd better just close your eyes
For everywhere that there ever was
Is dumped with litter today because
Today's the day that everyone has their picnic

Every kid who's out with their friends is sure of some fun today
There's lots of fabulous food to eat and wrappings to throw away
Beneath the trees where nobody sees
That's where they go to do their wees
That's the way the kids today are brought up.

Picnic time for all their friends
All the kids are having a lovely time today
Watch them, catch them unawares
And see them litter on their holiday

The leftovers that they ought to take home
Are left on the grass for you to step on They're totally unaware
The parents are on their mobile phones
And at six o'clock they'll all go home
Leaving litter everywhere

When you walk out of your front door, you're in for a big surprise
A pile of poo has been left for you, you can see just where it lies
For every dog that ever there was
Will leave its poo for you to pick up
Another day their owners turn a blind eye
