

LOVE IS BLIND

I met her in a bar
It was love at first sight, she said
She came home in my car
And we spent the week in bed

We made love every day
There was magic in her kiss
The hours flew away
I'd never known such bliss

I lavished money on her
As any man would do
Bought her a fabulous fur
That cost me a bob or two

A five star hotel in Rome
Was the beginning of the end
She wanted to go home
And drove me round the bend

I've never had a lover
Quite like you, she said
I want you to meet my mother
I want us to be wed

Living together isn't the thing
For me and you, I said
I really don't want to buy a ring
I just like you in my bed

After that she dumped me
Took my car and ran
Cleared out all my furniture
She must have hired a van

I've tried to get back with her
I phone her all the time
But there's never any answer
It must be a dead line.
