

Apologies to The Beatles : 'I want to hold your hand'

Oh dear Paul, I'll ask you something

I think you'll understand

I really , really, I really want to join your band

I wanna join your band

I wanna join your band

Oh please, say to me

That I can join your band.

Oh please say to me that I can join your band

That I can join your band

That I can join your band

Oh, when you spotted me, I felt happy, inside

It's such a feeling of pride,

I can't hide, I can't hide. I can't hide.

Paul, when I sing with you

I feel really happy inside

It's such a thrill

That your songs I sing with pride

I love singing in your band

I love singing in your band

I love singing in your band

Yeah, when you found me, I know you understand

When I started singing.

That's when I came alive

I wasn't banned, I wasn't banned, I wasn't banned.
