

Here comes the rage again.

To the Eurythmics – Here comes the rain again.

Here comes the rage again
Rolling round my head like a firestorm
Ash burns on my face searing acid rain
I want to escape from this hurricane wind
We never talk like lovers must
To much plastic in our ocean
Shouldn't that trouble you too

So darling don't blank me
Like cowards do
Connect with me
Like we used to do

Here comes the rage again
Lifeline of my hand shows calamity
Ripping worlds apart a cold war nuclear explosion
Still can't breathe in the poisoned air
Feel the passions that others do
Want to jump into oblivion
No eye of the storm tranquillity with you

Please darling don't blank me
This is a catastrophe
Connect with me
Like lovers should
Lover's ooh
I beg - converse with me
Lover's blue

Rage rising again

Ooh-ooh-ooh

Rage storm rage storm rage storm

Here comes the rage again

Tears my head apart like a tragedy

A Glasgow kiss to my heart true

Let's raise a glass to oblivion

I know it's stormy with you too
