

I KNOW THIS WILL LAST FOREVER

Based on Ralph Vaughan Williams' 1923 adaptation of the traditional English folk song, Greensleeves. Vaughan Williams called his: 'Fantasia on Greensleeves'

My rose I tell is my love now lost,
To a time of old to a time of old,
My rose I tell is my love now lost,
Though my rose continues to bloom.

Greensleeves is my love for you,
Is my love for you, is my love for you,
Greensleeves is my love for you,
And I know this will last forever.

Greensleeves is your love for me,
Is your love for me, is your love for me,
Greensleeves is your love for me,
And I know this will last forever.

Dark shadows may appear though my heart will stay near,
And the turn of the tide will bring you closer to me,
The bright stars that shine will enlighten your path,
And any doubting shadows will be lost from the start.

Oh shadows may appear, but there won't be any tears,
And the turn of the tide will bring you closer to me,
Above us in the sky the Moon will guide your path,
And any doubting shadows will be lost from the start.

Lost love I will be yours once more,
In a time untold, in a time untold,
Lost love I will be yours once more,
And our rose will flower and bloom.

Greensleeves is my love for you,
Is my love for you, is my love for you,
Greensleeves is my love for you,
And I know this will last forever.

Greensleeves is your love for me,
Is your love for me, is your love for me,
Greensleeves is your love for me,
And I know this will last forever.