

LAMENT OF NUMBER 10

The Ballad of Rishi Sunak, Prime Minister: 25 October 2022

I've got a new job

Not sure what it is,

I need a new suit,

To look the biz

I've got a new job,

Up with the lark,

I need new shoes

Must be up to the mark!

I've got a new job,

I need my common sense,

A brief case of leather

And no nonsense

I've got a new job,

Smiling and greeting

I won't have much time

For eating and greeting

I've got a new job,

Above my station,

Pretty important

On behalf of the nation

I've got a new job,

Must trust and trust again,

Through the door of No 10

And out of the rain

I've got a new job,

Not sure how long I will last,

So far, it's been painful,

BLAST!
