

The Ballot Box

(To the tune “Greensleeves”)

The cost of living is very high, but food and fuel we have to buy

Some people struggle and just get by

An election is surely coming

Chorus

Vote! Vote for the one you choose

To speak for you, represent your views

Vote! Vote for the one you choose

An election is surely coming

Our pride and joy, the NHS, it functions now doing more with less

Its future health we can only guess

An election is surely coming

Repeat chorus

With war and want spreading far and wide, Britain can some help provide

But views will differ and collide

An election is surely coming

Repeat chorus

MP's who have the loudest voice, remember we also have a choice

Amid the arguments and the noise

An election is surely coming.

Repeat chorus
