

Solace

Volcano resting, fast asleep

Ocean vast, dazzling blue

Leafy green forest, winding path

Sacred valley, deep Peru

Historical building, days of old

Dark sky, shining star

White sandy beach, running miles

Ancient capital city Bozrah

Snow capped mountain, high

River flows down valley low

Lavender fields, purple bloom

Atlantic beaches Bordeaux

Boat filled harbour, rugged cliffs

Waterfall wild and free

Bluebell wood, carpeted floor

Sand deposits in Yellow Sea

Air around, invisible unseen

I am vulnerable and alone

Faraway places fill my mind's eye

The safety and solace of home
