

Loaves and Fishes

A summer's day out with family and friends
A walk in the woods, a stroll in the fens
We sit on a bench where we all catch our breath
Biscuit? asks Aunty Audrey

We climb up a hill, the dog jumps in a lake
We get a bit lost, which pathway to take?
We sit on the grass and watch the sheep graze
Sausage roll? asks Aunty Audrey

We run into a church to shelter from rain
The teenagers, moaning and groaning again
The rain eases off, we sit in the park
Ham sandwich? asks Aunty Audrey

We go into a pub and order a beer
Our backs to the fire, it's cosy in here
She's back from the bar looking ever so pleased
Peanuts? asks Aunty Audrey

We limp to the car, legs weary and sore
From the depths of a carrier bag there is more
A thermos or two are produced from below
Coffee? asks Aunty Audrey

We're snuggled in bed and we start to drift off
There's the sound of a distant sneeze and a cough
Uncle Roy snores from the bedroom next door
Sweet dreams! says Aunty Audrey
