

Legs Eleven

The sun's about to show itself
So take your razor from the shelf

We're not just talking sex appeal
Its more about the 'great reveal'

Need suds and foam and hand so steady
To transform legs to 'summer ready'

Bamboozling choices, Nair or Veet?
Thighs to knees or knees to feet?

Sandpaper or depilatory cream
Or go for waxing? Live the dream!

Don't forget behind those shins
Imperative for sexy pins

What is it that makes it grow?
For goodness sake! Now Hairy toes

Moisturise and skin descale
File rough heels and polish nails

To use fake tan or not to bother?
First one decision then another

Strappy sandals now, not crocs
Nor knee high tights or Christmas socks

Bleeding calves and Razor burn
Let's pray for winter's fast return
