Sobriety? (Based on Two Out Of Three Ain't Bad –Meatloaf)

Now I ain't had a drink all night
I'm pretty sure that I'll shake it
My wife is worried 'bout my state of my mind
She doesn't think I'll make it

I really think I'll be alright
I don't understand why everyone's stressing
I'm only drinking to relax my mind
Can stop now if I really want to

My life's been tough but I can't give up
I have to show them that I'm stronger than that I'm stretched so far that I'm about to snap

But how much more can one man stand
When he is fighting the whole world alone?

But I won't give in My body's aching and

I'm craving, I'm shaking
And my soul needs reprieve
Dear God please end my suffering

I can't give in (can't give in)
But what else can ease this pain?
I can't give in
But please show me how to begin

My parents didn't know how to show me love
They only taught me that I was not enough

I learnt that lesson so well and now it's all I can teach
And just no amount of words
Can ever show me that they got it so very wrong

I can't breathe
I'm just screaming for what could have been
However hard I try
I've never been able to give you love
The way that I feel it inside
(It's so sad)

There was only one boy who I have ever loved
And he was just two years younger than me
His death it left the biggest scar across my heart
I couldn't protect him, from our father

I can still see his face as he lay on the floor
The single tear of blood on his face
And though I pleaded and I begged for him
To stay with me
He closed his eyes and left me alone

And I cried his name, I cried his name,
I screamed his name and now

I'm craving, I'm shaking
And my soul needs reprieve
Dear God please end my suffering

I can't give in (can't give in)
But what else can ease my pain?

I'm craving, I'm shaking
And my soul needs reprieve
Dear God please end my suffering

I can't give in (can't give in)
Can anything else ease this pain?

I can't give in
But please show me how to begin

Ain't had a drink all night
But one glass won't do me no harm
