

Parents' Advice

Advice from Mother ...

Look both ways when you cross the street
Cross your t's and dot your i's,
Crossing your fingers behind your back
Does not nullify your lies.

Set realistic, achievable goals
Reach for the stars, but with heed,
Cross the stream where it is shallowest
Without betraying your creed.

A thousand souls will cross your path
Recognise those that add value,
Choose to be kind in an unkind world
Put yourself in another's shoe.

Avoid becoming cross-eyed drunk
Shop smart, don't overspend,
Never cross a picket line
Or double-cross a dear friend.

Advice from Father ...

Keep your legs crossed.
