Kenneth Dixon announced as FMI Ambassador for Zambia

Mr. Dixon is passionate for the mentorship and education of youth in the global arena. He is dedicated to creating opportunities for disadvantaged people in the film industry elevating the social advancement for human beings globally. He brings multiple resources through strategic partnerships in the entertainment industry. He started his career acting in films and television then later as an executive producer with Warner Brothers in Los Angeles. Along with his partners, he is the owner of UDmand.net, a worldwide streaming platform, which focuses on worldwide distribution for up-and-coming creative artists, emphasizing education as well as cutting edge independent films and television.

Mr. Dixon's plan is to create programs that are inclusive for all people, "through the power of our platform and partners, we elevate the disadvantaged creators' voices and projects by offering workshops taught by industry professionals as well as provide outlets for their work to be seen and heard". Years in the industry have blessed Mr. Dixon with successful projects such as Black August, Cover, the Seven Spiritual Laws of Success among others. He looks forward to extending opportunities to others.

Mr. Dixon has spent the last ten years travelling between Los Angeles and London establishing educational, informational workshops for youth with great results and looks forward to working with others in an ambassadorship implementing a global outreach community.

After many years as an actor, Kenneth partnered with Gus Blackmon at Warner Bros. Studios as an executive producer on numerous movies and television shows. Their accomplishments include such hits as the movies Cover, Black August, The Karlton Hines Story, Game Over, and The Larry Davis Story, as well as Deepak Chopra's The Seven Spiritual Laws of Success and How to Know God, which were distributed by 20th Century Fox.

Besides his work as an executive producer, Kenneth is an actor who has appeared in many films, television shows, and theatre. Acting credits include One Hour Photo starring Robin Williams, Angel, One More Road to Cross directed by Bill Duke, Hart to Hart Movie of the Week starring Robert Wagner, Days of Our Lives, The Young & The Restless, It's A Living, Night Court and 227.

Kenneth has appeared in 25 national commercials and has fifty-two voice-overs to his credit. He was a Theater Award nominee twice and an NAACP Award winner for his portrayal of Private Anthony Smalls in A Soldiers Play.
