What is your definition of success?

My mother inspired me to work hard and never give up. There have been many independent, strong women in my life that have inspired me to help others to become the best version of themselves. Success to me is taking someone under my wing and teaching them the basics and how to maneuver through life. I have mentored several interns from Carroll County and pulled them out of a difficult situation to get them moving in the direction to also become independent, strong women. True success is seeing others thrive around you.

Why do you love your career?

How many careers are there that you can help people to see a better version of themselves? I love coming into this space where I can connect with my clients and listen to their stories. Every conversation and interaction that I have makes a difference and this career offers me the opportunity to create change.
