

Script: Pastor Frank Johnson

What More Can God Say? (On Hebrews)
“Hold On [Part III]” (Hebrews 10:26-39)

I. THE CALL TO HOLD ON IS A REMINDER OF HUMAN _____ BEFORE GOD. vv. 26-31

1. This passage is about God’s corrective _____.
2. A willful habit of _____ has no remedy.
 - a. The _____ based on the Law of Moses called for capital punishment for those who rejected it.
 - b. The New Covenant based on the _____ of the Son of God should command an even greater devotion, and a greater accountability.
3. God’s judgment is _____.

II. THE CALL TO HOLD ON IS A REMINDER OF CHRISTIAN EXPERIENCE AND _____ . vv. 32-34

1. The writer reminds his readers of their faithfulness even amid _____.
2. He reminds his readers of the _____ for their faithfulness during persecution: “you knew that you yourselves had better and lasting possessions.” See Matthew 6:19-21 and 2 Corinthians 4:7-12, 16-18.

III. THE CALL TO HOLD ON IS A REMINDER OF CHRISTIAN _____ . vv. 35-39

1. The writer calls for _____ living, because the reward of God is a certain promise. He assures the readers that their “confidence” will be “richly rewarded.”
2. He reminds his readers of the certain expectation of the Savior’s _____ . See Habakkuk 2:3-4.
3. He defines true believers as those who do not “shrink back and are destroyed” as a result, but rather are “those who _____ and are saved.”

Take it home (applications).